

CAMPUS LINKS

TITLE	TELEPHONE	DESCRIPTION
General Education Advising	924-2129	General Education and undeclared major advising,
Advising Hub	Web Resource	Campus-wide advising resource. Locate and access the information and people you need to help you progress smoothly to your degree objective.
Bookstore	924-1800	Shop here for textbooks, discounted computers, and academic regalia.
Bursar's Office	924-1601	This office is responsible for the billing and collection of tuition, fees, campus housing and other university related charges.
Catalog	Web Resource	An online version of the printed catalog. Contains information you are responsible to know including degree requirements and policies at SJSU.
Career Services	924-6033	Offers a variety of services such as resume, career, and interview seminars. Internship development, job search workshops and job fairs.
Childcare	924-6988	The program serves children aged two and a half through six years. The Child Development Center is primarily for SJSU students.
Colleges and Departments	Web Resource	Links to each of the colleges and departments on campus.
Computer Labs	924-2377	SJSU has several student computer labs that give you free access to software, equipment and printing. Contact the help desk to get an email address and information on locations.
Counseling Services	924-5910	Counseling Services provides personal, educational and crisis counseling, groups and workshops, referral and consultation services. There is no charge for enrolled students for any of these services.
Disability Resource Center	924-6000	The DRC provides a variety of services: academic counseling, an adaptive computer lab, deaf, hard of hearing, and learning disability services, disabled parking permits and test accommodations.
Dropping a Class After Sept 5th, 2008	924-2129	Students may petition to Late Drop for serious and compelling reasons after the drop deadline. See this webpage for more information.
Educational Opportunity Program (EOP)	283-7500	Eligible students receive assistance their first year with academic advising, learning assistance workshops, and many other services.
Health Center	924-6120	The Student Health Center provides quality, convenient, affordable medical care and health education to registered SJSU students.
Library	808-2100	As a joint academic and public library, the library's resources are available to the entire community.
Mediation	924-1098	The Conflict and Common Ground program offers services to help resolve a conflict. Please check out the site for more resources.
MUSE	924-2639	MUSE refers to university-wide First-Year Experience activities, programs and workshops that exist to help first-year students succeed at SJSU.
Police Department (UPD)	924-2639	The UPD is committed to provide a safe and secure learning environment through professional, progressive and superior police, emergency, transportation and educational services.
Recreation on Campus	Web Resource	Links to campus life including the aquatic center, Greek life, sports & sports club, student life and leadership, and student organizations.
Student Involvement	924-5950	Students who are involved in campus life are generally more satisfied with their educational experience than those who are not involved. Student Involvement is the home of over 200 student groups.
Transportation Services	924 - RIDE	Information about public transportation solutions to and from SJSU.
Tutoring	924-2587	LARC offers free tutoring to eligible students in specific subject areas. They provide skills assessments, tutoring, subject advising, learning assistance, summer academic preparation and basic skills development.