Course Description

This is a capstone course required of all Organizational Studies (ORGS) majors. The course emphasizes team projects working with community or institutional partners to address issues through organizational design or change. Credits: 4 units.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

The project-based capstone requirement allows students to integrate their skills and knowledge by applying them to organizational problems and issues. The course will integrate skills and knowledge in the major courses on organizations and identity, organizations and society, and organizational processes. As a capstone course for the ORGS major, the course supports the program goals to create educational settings that link classroom instruction with real-world problem solving and develop skills in research, problem solving, and teamwork.

Course Content Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Use quantitative and qualitative research methods to understand organizations and their environments;
2. Work effectively at problem solving with others in a variety of roles as leaders and followers on teams;

3. Prepare a portfolio that will support the transition to a professional education or career;
4. Access important sources of information relevant about organizational studies and data relevant to them;
5. Recognize the moral dimensions of human actions and be able to act ethically and effectively within organizations; and
6. Demonstrate skills in addressing real-world organizational problems.

Required Texts/Readings

All readings are available to download from the course Canvas page

Course Requirements and Assignments

Assignments for this course include the following: (1) SJSU Plagiarism Tutorial (no credit); (2) Class Participation (10% of course grade); (3) Fieldwork (20% of course grade); (4) Take-Home Midterm Exam (20% of course grade); (5) Proposal Presentation (10% of course grade); (6) Project Presentation (10% of course grade); (7) Project Reports (30% of course grade).

- Download the guidelines for the course assignments. Read the guidelines carefully to ensure that you complete course assignments according to instructions.
- All assignments and exams must be completed in order to pass. I will not accept late assignments nor will I administer makeup exams unless documents can be presented as evidence of illness, death in family, jury duty, recognized religious observance, etc.
- No assignments will be accepted via e-mail—I must receive hard copies of all assignments.
- Please write clearly and correctly; seek help if you need it. Please proofread your papers carefully. Reading your work aloud often reveals mistakes in syntax and spelling.

SJSU Plagiarism Tutorial. All students must complete the SJSU plagiarism tutorial online and submit a printout of a passing grade on the quiz to the professor by September 1. The tutorial takes about 15 minutes to complete. Please note that I will not accept any assignments from students until I receive the plagiarism tutorial printout. The tutorial can be found here: <http://goo.gl/7s6Tka>.

Class Participation (10% of final grade). Students are required to have completed assigned readings by the date indicated in the course schedule (see schedule below) and be prepared to discuss the material in class, either in group discussion or class-wide question and answer. You are expected to be respectful of other students, the professor, and opinions, be mindful and courteous in your participation, and avoid dominating discussions.

Fieldwork (20% of final grade). As part of this course, you will be required to conduct two-hours of service-learning fieldwork assignments each week. You will have some choice in when you perform these activities, but you will sign up for and commit to a schedule on our third class meeting. Once we establish project teams at the end of February, you will work with your teammates to revise your schedules so that they work for all of you. You will report your fieldwork hours and activities on a form shared with class. There will be no Friday class meetings on service-learning fieldwork weeks.

Midterm Exam (20% of final grade). There will be a take-home midterm examination—essay questions requiring some independent research—based on lectures and readings. You will have a week to work on and submit your exam. The midterm will cover all material up to that point.

University Policy S06-4 (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S06-4.pdf>) states that “There shall be an appropriate final examination or evaluation at the scheduled time in every course, unless the course is on the official List of Courses in which a final is optional.”

Proposal Presentation (10% of final grade). Each student will prepare a five-minute (no more, no less) presentation proposing a small team project (3-4 team members) for the months of March and April (3 hours each per week) that will help meet our community partners’ needs. Students and community partner representatives will cast anonymous votes and we will select the top 3 projects to carry them out. Proposal presentations should focus on: (a) addressing a clear need expressed by partners; (b) organizing specific activities; (c) producing clear results. Students are encouraged (but not required) to use visual aids (e.g., PowerPoint, Google Slides), but all presentations must be emailed (as PowerPoints) to the professor no later than 10pm the night before the presentation (in order to minimize time spent loading each presentation in class).

Project Presentation (10% of final grade). Students in each project group will prepare a presentation on their activities. This is a group project, though students will receive individual grades. Presentations should be drafted using the following headings: (a) Introduction and Problem Statement; (b) Project Description; (c) Project Outcomes; (d) Conclusions and Suggestions for Future Projects. Please also follow these guidelines:

- Practice your presentation and make sure it fills fifteen minutes and no more. Keep an eye on the clock, direct the flow of discussion, and do not go over 15 minutes.
- All presenters should actively contribute to the crafting and delivery of the presentation.
- Make sure you clearly and concisely introduce and present your material in each section of the presentation.
- Face and engage the audience in your presentation. It’s ok to have notes, but remember that you are the stars of the show! We don’t want to see the back of your head as you read from slides or the top of your head as you read from a dense script.
- Avoid using too much text on slides or having too many slides for the allotted time.

Project Reports (30% of final grade) Each group will complete a report on their work on Japantown Prepared and Hensley Prepared. This is a group project, though students will receive individual grades.

Project reports will be a minimum of seven and a maximum of eight double-spaced pages (Times New Roman, 12-point font, one-inch margins). Page totals do not include references.

Reports should be drafted using the following headings: (a) Introduction and Problem Statement; (b) Literature Review; (c) Project Description; (d) Project Outcomes; (e) Conclusions and Suggestions for Future Projects (or continuing efforts on the current project – specify the role(s) of our partners in ongoing efforts).

Students are expected to use at least 5 academic sources (journal articles or books) in the paper. These should be to clearly state the concepts you borrowed and extended to developing your project and interpreting the outcomes. The review of concepts should be written for a general (i.e., not academic) audience.

For all references, you should conform to the American Anthropological Association Style Guide, available on the Canvas page for this course.

All assignments must be completed in order to pass. I will not accept late assignments nor will I administer makeup exams unless documents can be presented as evidence of illness, death in family, jury duty, etc. No assignments will be accepted via e-mail—I must receive hard copies of all assignments.

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Grading Distribution

100 - 97 A+	79 - 77 C+
96 - 93 A	76 - 73 C

Classroom Protocol and Student Responsibilities

1. It is expected that students will be attentive and respectful of their fellow students, the instructor and cultures and traditions which are not their own.
2. Students arriving habitually late to class will be asked to leave as this is disruptive to the learning process.
3. Mobile phones, laptops, and tablets must be turned off during class and must be out of sight or else the instructor will collect the device from the student until the end of class.
4. Students may record lectures for their own private use only, not to be redistributed or sold.
5. Students are required to read SJSU's Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 (see below). This university policy on plagiarism and cheating will be strictly honored.
6. In the event that the building is evacuated because of an emergency during class time, the class will convene in the parking lot directly adjacent to the building. No assignment will be canceled because of any such emergency.
7. If you miss a class, ask your fellow students for copies of their notes. If you need further help, please see me in my office hours.
8. Students are responsible for being aware of exam dates and assignment deadlines.
9. If you have any concerns about your class performance or comprehension, see me in my office hours or schedule an appointment. I am always willing to help students and I care about whether students are grasping the material and enjoying the class.
