Course Description

Theories and applications of three-dimensional form in visual art and design. Studio practice.

In this class you will make the transition from working with the illusionistic space of two-dimensional art, to "real," three-dimensional space. We will look at the world of manufactured objects, and how artists and designers engage in cultural critique by playing with our expectations about these objects. The assignments for this class are intended to blur the boundaries of functional design and art, while teaching you the important concepts and principles of three-dimensional design. You will learn a new fabrication technique with each assignment, through a series of hands-on demonstrations. Formal issues and expressive potential will be discussed in relation to each assignment, as well as issues like creative problem-solving. Slide lectures will be a common event, to provide you with ideas and inspiration and to improve your knowledge of current art-and-design-world practice.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
CLO 1 Make an object using a process of abstraction: use an existing form (natural or man-made) as the basis or inspiration for a new object that captures the “essence” of the original form without directly mimicking it.

CLO 2 Practice iterative design processes, using a problem solving routine that begins with brainstorming and sketching, refining of ideas, model making, testing, reassessment, and construction of a final solution.

CLO 3 Design objects with the capacities and qualities of a given material in mind, allowing these to influence the form of each object.

CLO 4 Integrate joinery and connective systems into the design of an object from its inception.

CLO 5 Assess an existing object or render a new object in two dimensions using cross-section drawings or the principles of patternmaking.

CLO 6 Fabricate objects using a wide variety of power tools and hand tools. Practice a variety of woodworking, metalworking, moldmaking and other constructive, subtractive and manipulation techniques.

CLO 7 Make objects that tell a story or offer “cultural critique,” the questioning of established societal conventions.

CLO 8 Recognize and use terminology specific to the field of three-dimensional design and sculpture.

Required Texts/Readings

A selection of excerpted course readings will be available online in PDF form, on the class Canvas site.

Materials and Tools Needed

Clothing:
Dress for working in the Shop— No open-toed shoes (sandals), no loose clothing or jewelry, long hair must be tied back securely.

Classroom Omnilock Code: Will be announced in class. Do not pass out to others.

The Shop Safety Test

Students who use the shop facilities will be required to pay a $20 fee to take the Shop Safety Test before they can use the facility. The fee must be paid prior to the student taking the Shop Safety Test. Students may pay at the Bursar’s Office, located in the Student Services Center, directly into Fund 62089 with cash, check, or ATM debit card. The test and fee are required only once a calendar year, so if you took the test during the Fall 2012 semester, you will not be required to pay this fee again until Fall 2013. If you paid the fee in Spring 2012, you must pay the fee again for Spring 2013. The shop test is valid for one (1) calendar year.

In order to take the Shop Safety Test and use the School of Art & Design Shop Facilities, you must:
• Bring a receipt for the fee paid at the Bursar’s Office into Fund 62089. The Bursar’s Office accepts cash, check, or ATM debit card payments.
• Be enrolled in at least one 3-unit Art or Design course during the spring 2013 semester.

We will watch the Shop Safety Test online at: http://www.sjsu.edu/at/atan/webcasting/events/shopysafety/index.html

The test is an open-notes test. I suggest writing EVERYTHING down that you can as you watch the video. When you have finished, answer the questions in the Shop Test review handout you were given on the first day of class. In our next class meeting we will go around the room and each student will give their answer for several questions, and we will discuss the answers.

Classroom Protocol

You must attend all equipment demonstrations in order to be allowed to use the equipment in the Wood Shop. If you did not see my demonstration on how to use a particular machine or perform a particular process, you must request a repeat demonstration from the TA. There will be a sign-in sheet for each class's demonstration.

Do not perform any process for this class if you did not see a safety demonstration on that process, or if you have forgotten any detail of the demonstration.

Material Data Safety Sheets (MSDS) must be on file for all potentially hazardous materials before they can be used in any of the Art & Design facilities. Submit one copy of the material’s MSDS to the department in Room 104 and a second copy to the faculty member or technician responsible for the facility where the material will be used. Please explain this to the students in your classes. This is a commonly missed question on the shop safety test and should be discussed with your class prior to the shop orientation.

DATES AND HOURS OF OPERATION- Fall 2015

NOTE: the operating hours below are based on historic allocations and do not reflect the impact(s) of any budget cuts that may occur.

Check the posted schedule outside the shop for updated hours of operation. Please be aware that clean-up starts 30 minutes before closing.

The safety orientation and test are given only during the first 3 weeks of the semester, from August 25th to September 12th.

If a student misses more than three (3) questions on the safety test, and fails the Second Chance Test, your presence is required in the shop at all times while that student is working in the facilities. All students who wish to use the shop facilities must pass the shop safety test, no exceptions.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Insert descriptions of course requirements and assignments here.

NOTE that University policy F69-24 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf states that “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Class participation: This includes: discussion of your colleagues’ work in critiques, discussion of the artists’ work presented in videos and slide presentations, discussion of readings, presence during technical demonstrations, input concerning desired technical demonstrations, interaction with visiting lecturers, and cleaning up after yourself in the classroom! You will be expected to sign in on a sign-in sheet each class period. If you don’t like to speak up a lot in class, at least the sign-in sheet will show me that you were (quietly) participating.

(Instructor reserves the right to change an assignment with adequate advance notice.)

Grades will be assigned according to University policy from A to F as outlined in the SJSU catalog. All work must be finished and turned in according to ascribed deadlines and instructions.

I will assign you a numerical grade for each of your projects in this class, as follows:

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.

University Policies

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.
Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
  - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
  - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.
