Course Description

This course provides an introduction to the arts and architecture of Europe and the Mediterranean world from prehistoric times to the Middle Ages. Throughout the course we will approach objects and monuments from as many viewpoints as possible, within the limits of a survey, paying attention to the roles and functions of art in human culture, and to the ways that art articulates and gives shape to human existence. We will also work on sharpening observational skills and on developing a vocabulary to talk about art and architecture with increasing precision and confidence. We will work hard on understanding how visual objects work and how to analyze with close and patient attention and then to write about them.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO) (Delete if not applicable)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- recognize how significant works illuminate enduring human concerns
- respond to such works by writing both research - based critical analyses and personal responses (Paper 1 and 2)
- write (more) clearly and effectively (Paper 1 and 2)
- discuss characteristics and concerns typical or distinctive of art from various historical periods using a more precise and sophisticated vocabulary. (Papers, exams)
- articulate a basic understanding of ways that works of art function, and of ways that art shapes human society and is shaped by historical and cultural conditions. (Papers, exams)

As in any university course, Art History 70A does not give you these competencies but creates an opportunity for you to work toward achieving them. The university is not a business and you are not simply buying content. You must work hard to learn and develop your skills. Let me know if you need help.

GE/SJSU Studies Learning Outcomes (LO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have improved their ability to:

(LO1) Recognize aesthetic qualities and processes that characterize works of the human intellect and imagination.

(LO2) Respond to works of art both analytically and affectively in writing and class discussions (this last part is not easy in a large class, but we will occasionally take time for discussion).

(LO3) Write clearly and effectively.

(LO4) Experience significant works of art in the classroom and museums.

(LO5) Understand the historical and cultural contexts in which specific works of art were created.

(LO6) Recognize the accomplishments of and issues related to women and diverse cultures as reflected in the works of art.

Earlier editions can be used, though you will have to check for differences, for example in page numbers. You can also rent the text or look for a used copy, but you may not have access to the same illustrations.
