Course Description
A Beginning photography course which introduces basic aesthetic issues in (primarily black and white) image making. Introduces photographic techniques utilizing digital cameras, electronic image processing and digital printing. Requires a DSLR (digital single lens reflex) type camera. Requires Adobe Lightroom.
COURSE GOALS
Photography surrounds us and influences our daily lives in numerous ways. In the era of social media, digital photographs contextualize contemporary life. When photographing, we engage in the creation of visual culture. What does it mean to be a photographer now? In a time when everyone is continually taking photographs, how do we capture creative images filled with artistic meaning? In this class, students will be encouraged to reflect upon their current context in a technological age by creating relevant, impactful and unique digital images.

STUDENTS IN THIS COURSE WILL:
Shoot, edit, print, exhibit, and discuss digital images. Class demonstrations and discussions will be held at the beginning of each new assignment, there will be required instructor check-ins at the start of each assignment, working critique/trouble-shooting session with the class at each mid-point, and a final class critique at the end of each assignment.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
CLO1 - Acquire basic understanding of digital photographic materials, process, and equipment
CLO2 - Gain skills in handling and application of equipment and process
CLO3 - Become familiar with historical developments of photography
CLO4 - Become familiar with basic elements of the photographic image
CLO5 - Acquire understanding of visual communication and aesthetic appreciation

Course Requirements and Assignments

Cell-Phone Challenge: This mini-assignment is intended to get you looking at your world within the frame of digital photography, in a familiar but challenging way. Make one interesting photograph using your camera phone. It cannot use ‘typical’ cell phone conventions (more tba in class), but instead must attempt thoughtful photographic approaches reviewed during instruction. Upload this image to the class Google Drive by August 22nd at 11:59 pm, the night before our second class on August 23rd. This assignment is Pass/Fail and only requires you email one image to present. Be prepared to talk to the class about why you feel this image is artful and unique.

Chasing Light: Light is at the core of photography, and the key to compelling photographs. You must attempt all 25 Light and Composition Options listed on the assignment handout. Well-crafted, black and white images with full tonal range are the objective. You must shoot a minimum of 200 new images for this assignment. There will be a check-in with the instructor toward the beginning of the assignment, a working critique/trouble shooting session with the class at the midway point, and a final class critique. Turn in 25 edited, finished digital images on a flash drive with your name on it, due at the beginning of class. Upload your favorite 5 images to class Google Drive by 11:59 pm the night before the critique. Present your 5 favorite via projector during our in-class critique, and hand in all 25 images on a flash drive.

Picturing the Self: Create 3 self-portraits. These portraits can be metaphorical, and do not need to be limited to actual photographs of your face/body, but can also be photographs of things that represent you. Be prepared to vocalize why they represent you. You must shoot a minimum of 100 new images for this assignment. Your final images must show an understanding of Lightroom editing and black and white printing skills. There will be a check-in with the instructor toward the beginning of the assignment, a working critique/trouble shooting session with the class at the midway point, and a final class critique. Turn in 3 unmounted prints in a portfolio with your name on it, due at the beginning of class.

Sacred Spaces: Create a series that explores something sacred to you. This theme is purposefully broad so that you may create works for your portfolio that are relevant to your unique voice as an artist.
What is meaningful and special to you? Is it a place, a community, a personal connection, or internal reflection? Create a series that captures what is important in your life. Hand in a portfolio of at least 5 mounted prints or a book of at least 10 images on a project of your choice. This final assignment focuses on creating a cohesive series and requires prior approval of a written proposal (1 page or less). There will be a check-in with the instructor and proposal review, a working critique/trouble-shooting session, and a final class critique. Portfolio prints must be window-matted. Book must be professionally bound. Print quality and presentation matters for both the book or prints. Make sure to allow time to redo book or prints if necessary.

Final Print Swap: For the assigned Final Examination Day, students will bring 1 print wrapped in brown paper without your name for a white-elephant print exchange. Sign the back of your print and wrap it anonymously in brown butcher paper (or with the blank inner portion of a brown grocery bag). The swap is Pass/Fail and only requires you bring one wrapped print to participate. You are welcome to bring extra prints to trade with your classmates after the swap, but it is not required.

Participation: Participation in exercises, discussions, activities, and install/deinstall of the class exhibition, is required to succeed in this class. Participation in peer discussions can be in the form of asking questions, sharing experiences, and giving constructive feedback (critique discussions will incorporate a handout to encourage vocabulary use). Exercises that are relevant to the course material will be given in class and cannot be made up. The exercises may be on the camera, computer, and may involve short excursions to other parts of campus. Participation is required and a significant part of your grade.

The University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi (http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf) requires the following language to be included in the syllabus: “Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

OUT-OF-CCLASSROOM EXPERIENCES

We will occasionally visit campus galleries when relevant to class content. You will be given adequate notice ahead of time before all out-of-class activities, via in-class announcements and the course schedule posted to Canvas/mailed to the class.

CLASS EXHIBITION

Once confirmed with the gallery office, a class exhibition will take place at the end of the semester utilizing one printed image made during the semester. The class will create, curate, and install an exhibition of gallery-ready images in one of the San Jose State exhibition spaces in the Art Department building.

EXTRA CREDIT

- SF Photography Program Field Trip: As a photo student, you will be invited to join the SF Photography Program Field Trip. This happens once each semester. If you attend the field trip, you will receive extra credit points for visiting galleries and museums with us on Saturday ____/____/2018.
We will also occasionally visit campus galleries when relevant to class content, in which case you will be given adequate notice ahead of time. Attending the MFA ATC presentations can also be done for extra credit, more TBA in class.

If you are worried about your grade, please talk to me for further support and credit possibilities.

Please note: Except in cases of documented emergencies, incomplete grades are not given in this course.

“All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.

Additional Note: This syllabus is subject to change, in the event of unforeseen circumstances, or in the case that changes will significantly enhance the quality of the course. Students will collectively have the opportunity to shape the ways in which the course unfolds.

Classroom Protocol

Class demonstrations and discussions will be held at the beginning of each new assignment. Announcements will be done at the beginning of class, and will not be repeated. If you are late, you will miss essential information that may later affect your grade. It is your responsibility to make up missed class sessions. Participation is an important part of your grade and will be based on open lab time, class discussions and activities, and all required critiques. I will be checking in regularly during open labs for questions/help and will notice absent students. If critique runs into a second class day, everyone is required to attend, even if your work has already been critiqued; please give others the time and thoughtful critique they gave you.

Please contact me in advance if you are going to miss class (multiple absences can affect your grade).

Texting and non-classroom computer use in class is prohibited.

Think of this class as an opportunity to explore expressing yourself visually. Those who experiment and take chances with their image-making will be rewarded.

Final Print Swap: Everyone will bring 1 print wrapped in brown paper without your name for a white-elephant print exchange. Most students sign the back of their print and wrap it anonymously with the blank inner portion of a brown grocery bag. The swap is Pass/Fail and only requires you bring one wrapped print to participate. You are welcome to bring extra prints to trade with your classmates after the swap, but it is not required. |
