• Writing for both professional and general audiences
• In-class and out-of-class writing assignments
• Discussion and reading aloud in class
• Assignments using library resources
• A minimum of 8,000 words (32 pages) of writing

• Students must receive a grade of C or better in order to pass this course.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

From the SJSU General Education Guidelines: “Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Students shall be able to:

1. refine the competencies established in Written Communication 1A and 1B, and organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources;
2. express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse; and
3. understand appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources (e.g., issues regarding plagiarism and intellectual property).”

In other words, this course offers you the opportunity to work toward the following learning objectives:

1. Learning Objective 1: Write more correctly, clearly, and concisely; organize and develop standard professional documents; tailor your writing to specific audiences, including the general public and fellow visual arts professionals; distinguish between primary and secondary sources and make astute use of both.

2. Learning Objective 2: Locate and evaluate a wide range of art and design sources; summarize, analyze, and effectively respond to ideas that you find in such sources.
3. Learning Objective 3: Observe and be able to explain ethical standards for citation and the use of intellectual property; tailor your writing to specific audiences, including the general public and fellow visual arts professionals; distinguish between primary and secondary sources and make astute use of both.

2. Learning Objective 2: Locate and evaluate a wide range of art and design sources; summarize, analyze, and effectively respond to ideas that you find in such sources.

3. Learning Objective 3: Observe and be able to explain ethical standards for citation and the use of intellectual property.

Other equipment / material requirements

For submitting formal writing assignments, by the second week of class, please obtain at least one folder with your name and section number clearly written on the outer top right corner. You most likely will need some kind of notebook or binder to organize handouts and work done in class. To each class, bring all handouts, all assignments, writing paper, and something to write with. Depending on the assignment, I will require students to submit hard copies of work in addition to submitting work online through Canvas. PLEASE PAY ATTENTION TO INSTRUCTIONS AND ASK QUESTIONS FOR CLARITY.

Classroom Protocol

Attendance and participation are critical in order to motivate other students and me; this helps to create an atmosphere of shared learning. Consequently, in-class participation and take-home writing exercises are a significant part of your grade. At the end of the course, I give a separate letter grade for general participation based on observing those students who take the initiative to actively contribute to class discussions, in-class work, and are present, prepared, and engaged for peer reviews. Because I do my best to arrive punctually with all required materials, and I stay for the entire class, I expect the same. Be on time. People who are consistently late will be questioned, and if the issue does not improve, your participation grade will be affected. Please ask questions or provide constructive comments because I need to know if we have clear communication. Most importantly, respect your peers and me because this establishes trust in the classroom.

We all need to improve our skills in respecting each other and creating a shared space of civility in the classroom. Please do not work on assignments from other classes, insist on drawing or sketching during class, surf the Internet, or, unless approved by me as part of class activity, use your computer, iPad, or other electronic devices, etc. You are expected to devote your full attention to class work during the hour and fifteen minutes we are together. Please turn off and put away your cell phone. For students who insist on using their devices during class, I will give you one warning by email, and if it is not honored, then your participation grade at the end of the course will be lowered. If you use your phone or device during a quiz or exam, which is against San Jose State University policy on Academic Integrity (see http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/facultyandstaff/Academic_Integrity/), your action will be noted and reported the Chair of the Department of Art and Art History to determine disciplinary action, and your grade will be lowered at the end of the course. As an act of courtesy, please eat your food outside the classroom. Some people may be fasting or otherwise unable to schedule meals, so eating in front of them can be stressful and distracting. Beverages are acceptable. Excessively disruptive behavior will be reported to the Chair of the Department for appropriate disciplinary action.

Be prepared to collaborate with your peers, to work with partners and groups, and to move your seating arrangement for group activity. For in-class workshops, I expect you to bring in draft copies of your work in a format that is readable and editable (by me), meaning content can be presented as a hard copy or on a laptop or tablet, i.e., not on your phone. I understand you all work hard towards earning your degree; however, for your benefit and other students’ morale, if you fall asleep in class, I am obligated to wake you up, and you must leave class immediately.

Department Advising

Department syllabi/greensheets. Please note that after August 7, 2019, 5:00 p.m., all changes to the syllabus (such as the course schedule and assignment due dates) will be announced through Canvas. Students are expected to check in with coursework through Canvas.

Dropping and Adding
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page. The Late Drop Policy is available here. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub.
Assignments and Grading Policy

Assignments:

      (research proposal, 1 draft; 1 final)
   c. Professional Documents (Artist’s Statement/bio; Letter of Introduction; Resume)
      (1 draft each, 1 final each)

REMINDER: ALL outlines and drafts and my assessment sheets must be submitted with the final version of your paper. This allows me to see progress. Points will be deducted if you do not turn in your drafts.

4. Participation (L01, L02)

6. Final Exam (L01, L02)
   Essay exam. Students not passing or who miss the final exam receive a No Credit (NC) for this course.

Assignment Format:
Unless I have allowed the assignment to be handwritten, type all assignments with one-inch margins and a 12-point font. Double-space, use 1” margins, with page numbers and your name, section number and assignment title on all pages.

For formal writing assignments (the Formal Analysis and Research Paper), you are expected to create a title page for the final version of your essay. If required by the assignment, include illustrations with a caption. For your final version, staple pages together at the upper left-hand corner and also turn in your outline and draft, and my draft assessment sheet. Outline and draft text must be typed; brainstorming tools or notes can be submitted handwritten, and everything must be legible. Turn in all documents inside a folder with your name and section number on the top right corner. Keep a printed copy and a back-up of all your work for this course. I will not accept the excuse that you lost your work as justification for turning in work late. Keep all graded and reviewed work until the end of the course.

Grading:

NOTE: As of August 7, I do not post grades through an internet-accessible website or course management tool. This may change as I work to integrate my grade book for Fall 2019. However, until further notice, if you want to monitor your progress, communicate with me directly.

Formal Written Assignments and take-home writing exercises will be assigned points and graded according to SJSU academic writing standards guidelines for assessment. When necessary, specific rubrics will be created and presented in class and or posted on Canvas. Again, please be aware that assignment instructions will communicate specific submission requirements such as the need for a hard copy or online submission.

SJSU academic standards guidelines:

Final grades given in all 100W courses are A, B, C, and NC (No Credit). A NC will not affect your GPA, but you will have to repeat the course until you earn a letter grade. A grade of C- is not a passing grade in this course. Any final grade falling below a C will be recorded as a NC. (see http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F88-6.pdf)

Note: This course will not be graded on a curve. You will not be competing against other students.

Late Work Policy:

No late work is accepted.

All papers must be original to this class (no "recycling"), meet all requirements of each assignment, and properly reference all outside sources (including Internet sources) for credit. DO NOT slide a hard copy of your work under the door in my office after the due date, post it late on Canvas or send via email, or put it in my mailbox. Arrangements for alternative work delivery need to be discussed and agreed with by me BEFORE the assignment deadline. Extreme emergencies that impact your ability to meet deadlines will be considered, but not necessarily agreed to. A pattern of inconsistent or poor work ethic will earn a lower grade. Repeatedly bargaining for deadline extensions and making excuses is not acceptable behavior and will affect your grade.

All incidences of plagiarism will result in an assignment grade of "0" and will be reported to the Office of Judicial Affairs. Please do not use profanity in your work; exceptions might be made depending on the context and are discussed and agreed to.

SPECIFIC DUE DATES AND SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL ASSIGNMENTS ARE GIVEN IN CLASS AND POSTED ON Canvas. It is your responsibility to keep up with coursework and be aware of announcements and changes. My suggestion is to connect with several classmates in case you need information. Again, unless instructed otherwise, assignments are to be typed using standard academic formatting.

Communication:

My communication preference is in person, via email, or through Canvas.

University Policies

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University’s Academic Integrity policy, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified.

Plagiarism will lead to grade penalties. It might also result in you failing the course and/or having the incident permanently noted in your SJSU student records. If you are unsure what constitutes plagiarism, it is your responsibility to educate yourself, or ask for clarification, before you hand in written work. If plagiarism is brought up for discussion with a student, I expect us to work together in a spirit of mutual respect to resolve the problem.
Learning when to cite a source, and when not to, is an art, not a science. However, here are some examples of plagiarism that you should be careful to avoid:

* If you use a sentence (or even a part of a sentence) that someone else wrote and do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.
* If you paraphrase somebody else’s theory or idea and do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.
* If you use a picture or table from a web page or book and do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.
* If your paper incorporates data someone else has collected and you do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.

The SJSU library has a tutorial that explains how to identify and avoid plagiarism.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessibility Education Center (AEC) to establish a record of their disability.

SJSU Writing Center

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Clark Hall, Suite 126. All Writing Specialists have gone through a rigorous hiring process, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. On the road to graduation, Peer Mentors are navigators, offering “roadside assistance” to peers who feel a bit lost or simply need help mapping out the locations of campus resources. Peer Mentor services are free and available on a drop-in basis, no reservation required.
