Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

From the SJSU General Education Guidelines: “Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Students shall be able to:

1. Refine the competencies established in Written Communication 1A and 1B, and organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources;
2. Express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse; and
3. Understand appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources (e.g., issues regarding plagiarism and intellectual property).”

In other words, this course offers you the opportunity to work toward the following learning objectives:

1. Learning Objective 1: Write more correctly, clearly, and concisely; tailor your writing to specific audiences, including the general public and fellow visual arts professionals; distinguish between primary and secondary sources and make astute use of both.
2. Learning Objective 2: Locate and evaluate a wide range of art and design sources; summarize, analyze, and effectively respond to ideas that you find in such sources.
3. Learning Objective 3: Observe and be able to explain ethical standards for citation and the use of intellectual property.

Classroom Protocol

Attendance and participation are critical in order to motivate other students and me; this helps to create an atmosphere of shared learning. Consequently, in-class and take-home writing exercises are a significant part of your grade. At the end of the course, I give a separate letter grade for general participation based on observing those students who take the initiative to actively contribute to class discussions, in-class work, and are present, prepared, and engaged for peer reviews. Because I do my best to arrive punctually with all required materials, and I stay for the entire class, I expect the same. Please ask questions or provide constructive comments because I need to know if we have clear communication. Most importantly, respect your peers and me because this establishes trust in the classroom.

Please do not work on assignments from other classes, insist on drawing or sketching during class, surf the Internet, or use your computer, iPad, or other electronic devices, etc. You are expected to devote your full attention to class work during the hour and fifteen minutes we are together. Please turn off and put away your cell phone. For students who insist on using their device during class, I will give you one warning by email, and if it is not honored, then your participation grade will be lowered. If you use your phone or device during a quiz or exam, which is against San Jose State University policy on Academic Integrity (see http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/facultyandstaff/Academic_Integrity/), your action will be noted, and your grade will be lowered at the end of the course. Excessively disruptive behavior will be reported to the Chair of the Department for appropriate disciplinary action.

Be prepared to collaborate with your peers, to work with partners and groups, and to move your seating arrangement for group activity. I understand you all work hard towards earning your degree, but if you fall asleep in class, I am obligated to wake you up, and you must leave class immediately.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/academic_affairs/resources/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Assignment Format:

Unless I have allowed the assignment to be handwritten, type all assignments with one-inch margins and a 12-point font. Double-space, use 1" margins, with page numbers and your name, section number and assignment title on all pages.

For formal writing assignments (the Formal Analysis and Research Paper), you are expected to create a title page for the final version of your essay. If required by the assignment, include illustrations with a caption. For your final version, staple pages together at the upper left-hand corner and also turn in your outline and draft, and my draft assessment sheet. Outline and draft text must be typed; brainstorming tools or notes can be submitted handwritten, and everything must be legible. Turn in all documents inside a folder with your name and section number on the top right corner. DUE DATES FOR ALL ASSIGNMENTS ARE GIVEN IN CLASS.

Keep a printed copy and a back-up disk of all your work for this course. I will not accept the excuse that you lost your work as justification for turning in work late. Keep all graded and reviewed work until the end of the course.

Grading:

NOTE: I do not post grades through an internet-accessible website or course management tool. If you want to monitor your progress, you need to communicate with me directly.

Formal Written Assignments and take-home writing exercises will be graded according to the following SJSU academic standards for assessment:

A (excellent): The paper contains no grammatical, spelling, or typographical errors. It is outstanding in clarity, style, and organization. The depth and accuracy of the information covered are appropriate for the assignment. The style and format of the paper are appropriate for the assignment.

B (good): The paper may contain a few minor grammatical errors, but should contain few or no typographical or spelling errors. For the most part, the paper is clearly written and logically organized. The topic is covered in reasonable depth and the information presented is accurate. The style and format of the paper are appropriate for the assignment.

C (average): The paper may contain some minor grammatical, typographical, or spelling errors. For the most part, it is clearly written and logically organized. For the most part, the depth of coverage of the topic is appropriate and the information is accurate. For the most part, the style and format of the paper are appropriate for the assignment.

D (below average/unacceptable): The paper contains significant or serious grammatical, typographical, or spelling errors. It is not clearly written or logically organized. The train of thought is difficult to follow. The depth of coverage of the topic is not adequate. The information presented is inaccurate. The style and/or format of the paper are not appropriate to the assignment.

F (unacceptable): A paper will receive an F if two or more of the following conditions are satisfied: The paper contains significant or serious grammatical, typographical, or spelling errors; it is not clearly written or logically organized; the train of thought is difficult to follow or incomprehensible; the depth of coverage of the topic is not adequate; the information presented is inaccurate; the style and/or format of the paper are not appropriate to the assignment. The paper will also receive an F if some or all parts of the paper have been plagiarized, as defined below.

Grade Scale:

94-100%	A (no grades above "A")	90-93	A-
87-89	B+	84-86	B
80-83	B-	77-79	C+
73-76	C	70-72	C-
67-69	D+	63-66	D
60-62	D-	0-59	F

Final grades given in all 100W courses are A, B, C, and NC (No Credit). A NC will not affect your GPA, but you will have to repeat the course until you earn a letter grade. A grade of C- is not a passing grade in this course. Any final grade falling below a C will be recorded as a NC.

Note: This course will not be graded on a curve. You will not be competing against other students.

Late Work Policy:

No late work is accepted.

All papers must be original to this class (no "recycling"), meet all requirements of each assignment, and properly reference all outside sources (including Internet sources) for credit. DO NOT slide your late work under the door in my office, put it in my mailbox, or hide it (so I can "discover" it) in the same folder for another assignment. Extreme emergencies that impact your ability to meet deadlines will be considered, but not necessarily agreed to. A pattern in poor work ethic will be rewarded with a lower grade. All incidences of plagiarism will result in an assignment grade of "0" and will be reported to the Office of Judicial Affairs. Please do not use profanity in your work.

University Policies

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University's Academic Integrity policy, located at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/policies/integrity.html>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/> to establish a record of their disability.

For additional resources and updated information, follow the Writing Center on Twitter and become a fan of the SJSU Writing Center on Facebook. (Note: You need to have a QR Reader to scan this code.)

Plagiarism will lead to grade penalties. It might also result in you failing the course and/or having the incident permanently noted in your SJSU student records. If you are unsure what constitutes plagiarism, it is your responsibility to educate yourself, or ask for clarification, before you hand in written work. If plagiarism is brought up for discussion with a student I expect us to work together in a spirit of mutual respect to resolve the problem.

Learning when to cite a source, and when not to, is an art, not a science. However, here are some examples of plagiarism that you should be careful to avoid:

* If you use a sentence (or even a part of a sentence) that someone else wrote and do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.

* If you paraphrase somebody else's theory or idea and do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.

* If you use a picture or table from a web page or book and do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.

* If your paper incorporates data someone else has collected and you do not reference the source, you have committed plagiarism.

The SJSU library has a tutorial that explains how to identify and avoid plagiarism, available at: <https://libguides.sjsu.edu/plagiarism>.
