Nonprofit Providers of Education/Economic/Workforce Development

Education
This includes agencies who provide childcare, early childhood, afterschool programs with schools, youth services, parent engagement, and school-based services.

- Advent Group Ministries
- All Stars Helping Kids
- Alum Rock Counseling Center (ARCC)
- Boys & Girls Clubs of Silicon Valley
- Breakthrough Collaborative
- Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County (CCSJ)
- Chamberlain's Mental Health Services
- Children's Discovery Museum (CDM) of San Jose
- Children's Health Council, Inc. (CHC)
- Choices for Children (Continuing Development Inc) CDI
- City Year San Jose/Silicon Valley
- Community Child Care Council of Santa Clara, Inc (4C's)
- Community Health Awareness (CHAC)
- Community Solutions
- CommUniverCity
- EMO Families First
- Estrella Family Services
- Family & Children Services (FCS)
- Foothill College Family Engagement Project
- Gardner Family Health Network
- Gardner Health Services
- Go Kids, Inc
- Grail Family Services (GFS)
- Healthier Kids Foundation
- Indian Health Center of the Santa Clara Valley (IHSCV)
- International Children Assistance Networks (ICAN)
- Kidango Inc.
- Kids In Common
- Law Foundation of Silicon Valley
- Pacific Autism Center for Education (PACE)
- Parent Services Project
- Parents Helping Parents (PHP)
- Project Cornerstone
- Rebekah Children's Services
- Sacred Heart Community Service
- San Jose Day Nursery
- San Juan Bautista Child Development Center (SJBCDC)
- Somos Mayfair
- Sunday Friends
- Teen Success
- The Health Trust
- United Way Silicon Valley (UWSV)
- VMC Foundation
- YMCA of Silicon Valley

Students who fall to meet the 3rd grade reading level are at a 4 times greater risk of not graduating on time in comparison to their peers.

60% of those without a high school diploma come from that group of troubled readers.

Only 61% of Santa Clara County's 3rd graders are proficient according to their scores on the 2013 English Language Arts CST exam.

Economic Empowerment
These agencies help individuals provide for themselves with basic necessities such as rental and housing assistance, food, clothing, shelter, and financial literacy classes.

- Amigos de Guadalupe
- Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County
- Community Services Agency of Mountain View & Los Altos
- Family Supportive Housing, Inc.
- The Housing Trust
- Invision/Opportunity Center
- Opportunity Fund
- Sacred Heart Community Services
- The Salvation Army - Silicon Valley
- St. Joseph's Family Center
- Sunday Friends
- Sunnyvale Community Services
- Unity Care Group
- United Way Silicon Valley
- West Valley Community Services

An estimated 214,000 people in Santa Clara County are living in poverty.

The Self Sufficiency Standard for a family of 4 (2 adults, 1 preschooler, and 1 school-aged child) in Santa Clara County is $81,774.

Due to the high cost of housing, seven Santa Clara County Emergency Assistance Agencies serve 100,262 very low-income people per year, 618 households received help with their security deposits and 15,135 households received aid for their utility payments.

Workforce Development
Nonprofits are key players in job training and workforce development serving as providers of education, training, resume writing, and job search services.

- Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County
- Center for Employment Training (CET)
- ConXion to Community
- Expandability
- Goodwill of Silicon Valley
- Hope Services
- Jewish Family Services of Silicon Valley
- NOVA Workforce Development
- Pars Equality Center
- Project HIRED
- The Salvation Army - Silicon Valley
- San Jose Job Corps
- Sourcewise (Council on Aging of Santa Clara County)
- St. Joseph's Family Center
- TeenForce
- Unity Care
- VetInTech
- Vietnamese Voluntary Foundation (VIVO)
- Work2Future
- YWCA of Silicon Valley
- And Community Colleges and adult education programs also provide similar workforce programs.

The Goodwill of Silicon Valley helped secure full-time, permanent employment for 70% of its New Opportunity Work Program (NOOP) participants and has also secured employment for more than 400 veterans since 2007.

Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County found job placements for 247 people in our community.

1,772 individuals received employment-related services through our EAN agencies.