

Declaration of Major in Chicana and Chicano Studies

Department of Chicano and Chicano Studies | SJSU | Clark Hall 231 | 408.924.5760 | Extended Zip: 0118

Student and Program Information

Last Name	First Name	SJSU ID#
Address
Preferred Email		Phone
If double-major, list other major		Form Status

Courses to Satisfy the Major

The CCS Major requires a minimum of 40 total units (14 courses). Students must take 9 units in an emphasis plus 6 units in the other two. Courses listed under more than one emphasis cannot be double-counted. This form documents departmental requirements only. Other requirements (120 units, GE, etc.) must also be met in order to graduate.

Course # and Title	Semester and Year	Units	Grade	Comments
Lower Division Core (4 units/2 courses total)
MAS 001 Intro to Chicana and Chicano Studies
MAS 002 Library Studies
Upper Division Core (15 units/5 courses total)
MAS 125 Chicana/o Community Studies
MAS 135 Contemporary Chicana/o Issues
MAS 150 Research Methods
MAS 151 Theory in Chicana/o Studies
MAS 152 The Story of Chicana/o Spanish
Additional Upper Division Courses (9 units in one emphasis and 6 units in two others = 21 units/7 courses total)
Emphasis: Cultural and Creative Expression
MAS 040 Chicano Theater
MAS 144 Chicana/o Literature
MAS 170 Hollywood's Image of Chicana/os
Emphasis: Institutions and Community Engagement
MAS 115 Chicana/o Families
MAS 127 Chicana/os and the Criminal Justice System
MAS 185 Teaching in a Diverse Society
Emphasis: Transnationalism and Global Relations
MAS 105 Chicanos: United States/Mexico Relations
MAS 120 The Political Economy and the Chicana/o Community
MAS 175 Human Migrations
Total units taken/projected (must add up to a minimum of 40 units)

For Official Use Only:

Substituted Course # and Title	College/University	Semester/Year	Units	Grade	CCS Equivalent

Signature _____

Date _____

Dr. Magdalena Barrera, Undergraduate Advisor