

FOUND IN TRANSLATION: A CONVERSATION WITH MEXICAN WRITER CRISTINA RIVERA GARZA

Thursday, November 16th 3pm-5pm

SJSU Student Center, Meeting Room 1B

Come join us for a conversation with award-winning Mexican writer Cristina Rivera Garza about the translation of her novel La Cresta de Ilion into English (Feminist Press, 2017), her work establishing the first Ph.D. in Creative Writing in Spanish in the United States, and how art can confront violence. Rivera Garza is the author of novels, short stories, books of poems and critical essays on Mexico. A native of Tamaulipas, Mexico, she has spent her life moving between the deeply connected worlds of the United States and Mexico, and is one of the most respected writers and thinkers from Mexico today.

*This event made possible by The Department of World Languages and Literatures,
The San Jose State University Artistic Excellence Programming Grant,
The College of Humanities and Arts
The Department of Mexican American Studies and the international research association UC Mexicanistas.*

