Five to seven SJSU students will develop and implement their own social impact projects in Santa Clara County.

Projects to address such areas as poverty, inequality, employment, a living wage, education, housing, health care, food security, immigrant rights, and other County goals.

CONTACT Dr. Myers-Lipton at smlipton@sjsu.edu for more info; applications due 9/15.

2013-2014 SOCIAL IMPACT INTERNSHIP PROJECTS:

• Developed a college peer adviser program at Escuela Popular and Leadership Public High;

• Identified barriers to the CalFresh enrollment process and designed a CalFresh Awareness program for San Jose schools;

• Trained community-based organizations in the use of social media;

• Expanded DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) to East Side Union High School District;

• Implemented a program to encourage African American students to attend college at Oak Grove and Evergreen High Schools;

• Assessed food assistance programs in Santa Clara County.