

Timelines for Accessibility Requirements for San José State University Administrative Units and Faculty 2007-2012

Web Accessibility

Sept. 1, 2007

New and updated administrative web sites, web applications and web content should, at a minimum, conform to baseline accessibility standards as defined in Section 508, Subpart B, and where appropriate, Subpart C (Electronic and Information Technology Accessibility Standards (Section 508) <http://www.access-board.gov/sec508/standards.htm>).

May 15, 2009

All administrative sites that are critical to institutional access should, at a minimum, conform to baseline accessibility standards as defined in Section 508.

May 15, 2012

All web sites at the SJSU should fully conform to Section 508.

Instructional Materials Accessibility

Fall Term, 2008

New courses and new course content, including instructional materials and instructional web sites, will incorporate accessibility in its design. If incorporating accessibility is impossible or would constitute an undue burden, then a plan to provide an equally effective alternate form of access must be developed. Existing course content will be made accessible during course redesign or when a student with a disability enrolls in the course.

Fall Term, 2012

Instructional materials and instructional web sites for all course offerings will be accessible.

Accessible Electronic and Information Technology (E&IT) Procurement (AA-2008-21)

Oct. 1, 2007

Implemented a procurement process for E&IT acquisitions greater than $50,000.

Sept. 1, 2008

Implementation of an accessible procurement process for E&IT acquisitions greater than $15,000. All procurement card purchases are exempt from the accessible procurement process at this point in time.

Sept. 1, 2009

Implement a procurement process for E&IT card acquisitions greater than $2,500. (AA2007-04)

Sept. 1, 2010

Implement a procurement process for E&IT acquisitions less than $2,500, depending on results of campus progress reports.
