The SJSU Center for Faculty Development invites you to explore our campus…
Discover hidden gems...meet wonderful colleagues...
And learn about the inspiring things they do.

Agenda for Fall 2015

Date: Friday, August 28, 2015
Time: 11:00am-12:15pm

Agenda: Campus historical tour. Learn about the rich history and traditions of our beautiful campus from tour-guide and professor extraordinaire, Dr. Annette Nellen.
Meeting Point: In front of Clark Hall.

Date: Tuesday, October 6, 2015
Time: 3:00-4:15pm

Agenda: Visit the Accessible Education Center resources. Meet the professional staff who will work with you to arrange for appropriate accommodations for your AEC students; see first-hand how these support services work. Tour provided by Cindy Marota, AEC Director.
Meeting Point: Side-walk between the ADM building and the IRC.

Date: Friday, October 2
Time: 12noon-1:00

Agenda: Join us at the traveling exhibit of Goya's Los Disastres de la Guerra – an 80-print set of aquatint etchings capturing the misery and political repression of early 19th century Spain. Anne Simonson, Chair of the Department of Art and Art History, will welcome us and provide some context for this amazing body of work.
Meeting Point: Thompson Gallery, Art 130, 1st floor of the Art building.

Date: Friday, October 30
Time: 12noon-1:00

Agenda: Wellness Center and Kinesiology resources. Join us for a guided tour of the many resources and services provided to our students at our brand-new Wellness Center and discover some of the hidden treasures of the Kinesiology Department.
Meeting Point: In front of the new Wellness Center building.

Date: Friday, November 18
Time: 10:00am-1:00pm

Agenda: Explore three valuable resources located just blocks from campus: the Research Foundation, the College of International and Extended Studies, and the Mineta Transportation Institute.
Meeting point: Lobby of the Research Foundation, 4th floor, 210 N 4th St. Free parking in the parking structure, adjacent to the building.

Date: Thursday, December 3
Time: 12:15-1:20
Agenda: Please join us at the final Listening Hour of the Fall semester. Fred Cohen, Director of the School of Music and Dance will welcome us and provide some context, and then we will be treated to an eclectic program of SJSU student performances.
Meeting point: In front of the Music building.