

Face-to-Face Dialogue: What Does It Mean to be an Educated Person? Brown Bag Discussions – Spring 2012

This series of informal forums for spring 2012 is part of the Campus Dialogue that began in 2003 on what it means to be an educated person and what more we can be doing to help our students on their journey of lifelong learning. Please come to as many as you can to share your ideas with others and to learn more about ways we can all help to further enrich the educational experience of SJSU students. .

Each of these brown bag discussions is held in IRC 101 from noon – 1 pm.

Brainstorming FYE for New Faculty - Help design a first year experience (FYE) for new faculty to help them get a strong and enjoyable start of their SJSU career. What should Vision 2017's culture of helping look like for new faculty arriving in fall 2012? What do you wish you had known when you started your career at SJSU? Attend this session to share your ideas.

Facilitator Annette Nellen, Director of Faculty Development, College of Business

When: (held on two dates – same program each time)

Tuesday February 21

Monday March 19

Vision 2017 and the Educated Person - How might Vision 2017 help us in helping SJSU students become educated persons? What does Vision 2017's guiding principle - "SJSU is an innovative, engaged learning community committed to preparing students with adaptive skills and knowledge for a global 21st century" mean for our goals of helping our students become lifelong learners? Share ideas with colleagues at this open discussion.

Facilitators:

- Annette Nellen, College of Business
- Dorothy Poole, Chief of Staff, Office of the President
- Beth von Till, Chair, Academic Senate Chair

When:

Wednesday April 18

http://www.sjsu.edu/cfd/consultations/Educated_Person_Dialogue/

If you want to join the email discussion group – please contact
Annette Nellen at annette.nellen@sjsu.edu.