1. How do I demonstrate the Impact of my Research Scholarship and Creative Activity? We will share strategies and tools faculty can use to demonstrate the impact of their work with “stories and statistics”. Bring a laptop so you can follow along and work through some of the metrics. LUNCH will be provided.

   Monday, September 10 and Tuesday, September 11
   - Presentation & Demonstration: 12:00 -1:00 PM
   - Open Lab: 1:00 – 3:00 PM
   - Location: MLK 213

2. How do I know I’ve found everything? We will demonstrate a range of search tools that will help you ensure that you locate all of the work relevant to your research question(s). LUNCH will be provided.

   Monday, October 22 and Tuesday, October 23
   - Presentation & Demonstration: 12:00 -1:00 PM
   - Location: MLK 213

3. Detecting Fake News – Advanced moves for you and your students. How to assess the reliability of informational sources in today’s context. LUNCH will be provided.

   Tuesday, November 6 and Wednesday, November 7
   - Presentation & Demonstration: 12:00 -1:00 PM
   - Location: MLK 213

4. The Writing Marathons. CFD partners with the University Library four times each year, to create 2- and 3-day writing “oases”.

   Thursday, October 25, Friday October 26, Monday October 29
   - Open Lab: 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM
   - Location: MLK 213