Faculty Writing Program

A suite of activities and sessions designed to support faculty in their scholarly writing...

1. The Writing Marathons. CFD partners with the University Library four times each year, to create 2- and 3-day writing “oases”. All sessions take place in MLK Library 213, from 9am-3pm each day.

   - August 15th and 16th
   - November 16th, 17th and 20th
   - January, 2018 – dates TBD
   - April, 2018 – dates TBD

2. Getting off to a good start: Time management strategies and organization tips for crazy-busy faculty. Focusing on the basics. All sessions will take place in IRC 210.

   - Thursday, August 31, 2:00-3:00
   - Wednesday, September 13, 9:30-10:30

3. Exploring OneSearch. Join staff from the University Library and CFD for a lunch-and-learn exploring and SJSU’s newest scholarly resources search tools. Meet library liaisons from across the disciplines and learn tips and tricks for successful literature searches.

   - Monday, September 18 & Tuesday, September 19, 12:00-1:30 MLK Library Room 213

4. Pearls of wisdom about publishing your work. The CFD and the University Library are delighted to co-sponsor this lunch-and-learn event. We have assembled a panel of SJSU faculty who have served as editors of professional journals, and librarians who support faculty as they pursue appropriate outlets for their work. Please join your colleagues as they share advice about do's and don'ts as you seek to publish your scholarship.

   - Monday, October 30, 12-1:30, MLK Library, Room 225

5. Tools to Help You Stay Current in your discipline. The CFD and the University Library are delighted to co-sponsor this lunch-and-learn event. We will share cutting edge tools that will deliver state of the art information to your desktop automatically, and enable you to stay abreast of developments in your field.

   - Monday, November 13 & Tuesday, November 14, 12:00-1:30, MLK Library, Room TBD

6. Writing group supports – Would you like to find a writing buddy, or a group of colleagues who can support each other in their writing? CFD staff will help you identify one or more faculty members to work with, and will gladly provide space for you to meet and talk or write together.
