CHAMP

Grant Writing Workshop

Wednesday, December 9th: 12:00 pm – 2:00 pm
MacQuarrie Hall, Rm 520

CHAMP faculty affiliates and all faculty interested in aging-related issues are cordially invited to attend a Grant Proposal Writing Workshop. Paul McNamara from University Advancement will guide us through an array of topics vital for developing grant proposals related to Healthy Aging. Topics include:

- Identifying funding opportunities
- Writing and developing a Letter of Intent and full proposal in terms of need, scope, methods, qualifications, outcomes/milestones, evaluation & dissemination
- Budget development & budget narratives
- Working with Corporate & Foundation Relations: University Advancement

Note: Please bring laptops and/or writing tools (paper, pencils, and pens) and previous letters of intent with you or just ideas you want to develop. Everyone attending this workshop will receive a CD with sample guidelines, funding sources, writing resources, budget templates, and other writing and funding tools.

*Lunch will be provided

Please RSVP to Darlene Miller, Project Assistant, CHAMP at darmiller@yahoo.com by Friday, December 4th to reserve a space.
(If menu preference is vegetarian, please specify – thanks.)
