A HEALTH AND WELL-BEING RESPONSE TO IMPROVING FORENSIC ASSESSMENTS AND LEGAL RESPONSES TO RAPE KIT BACKLOGS

October 24, 2018 | 12-1 PM | MQH 526

Join School of Nursing Assistant Professor Sheri Rickman Patrick, DNP, FNP-BC, and Justice Studies Assistant Professors Edith Kinney and Shawna Bolton for a discussion on the roles of nurses, legal advocates, and forensic scientists in addressing cases of sexual assault. Learn more about the process of assisting survivors and collecting evidence from sexual assault victims, forensic testing, and the movement to #EndTheBacklog of untested rape kits.
