

Dr. Ernesto Galarza Scholarship 2016-2017

Essay Guidelines

To apply for this scholarship first become familiar with Dr. Ernesto Galarza's prolific academic scholarship as well as his activism on behalf of the Chicano/Latino community. Read the biographical essay by Richard Chabrán on Dr. Galarza to learn about his scholarship and his activist contributions. After reading Chabrán's essay, read the designated readings listed below to develop your essay. It is important that you read critically, identify key points, and analyze the significance of Dr. Galarza's ideas about education to contemporary events, issues, or problems faced by Chicano/Latino communities today. Use the prompt to write your essay.

To develop your essay follow these guidelines:

Write an analytical essay that is 6-8 pages long. In preparing your essay use 1-inch margins, 12-point font (Times New Roman or Arial only). Your essay must include a bibliography or reference page using MLA, Chicago/Turabian or APA citation format. Avoid plagiarism by citing any excerpt you use within your essay properly. Guidelines for citing and evaluating information, as well as for avoiding plagiarism, are available at

<http://libguides.sjsu.edu/plagiarism>

ESSAY PROMPT:

Dr. Galarza pioneered labor rights for workers. What dimensions of labor did Dr. Galarza address? Learn about his efforts by reading the articles provided. In your essay illustrate the significance of his contributions to the field of labor. Provide examples to support your discussion about his work. Lastly, based on your research and readings discuss the motivation for your activism as it pertains to labor and social equity issues in the Chicano/Latino community.

Your essay must include the following sections:

1. An introduction: In this section develop your thesis and describe the organization of your essay.
2. Body: Carefully examine and analyze Dr. Galarza's concerns, ideas and solutions in relation to the essay prompt. This is the body of your paper, so be certain to enrich the essay with carefully selected and cited excerpts from Dr. Galarza's writing.
3. Conclusion: Powerfully take your reader to a place of understanding that demonstrates your mastery of Dr. Galarza's ideas and how you applied these to your deliberation over the challenges in our community and your role in redressing these problems.
4. Bibliography

Required Readings: Found in SJSU Reserves

<http://library.sjsu.edu/course-reserves/course-reserves> (Professor: Blackmer)

You are required to read the following readings. However, feel free to draw on additional bibliographic sources you locate that are relevant to your essay. Be certain to include all references in your bibliography.

Articles

Chabrán, Richard. "Activism and Intellectual Struggle in the Life of Ernesto Galarza (1905-1984)." Pp. 135-152 in Hispanic Journal of Behavioral Sciences, 1985, Vol 7 No. 2.

Book Chapters

1964. "The Braceros and their Discontents." Pages 183 – 198 in Ernesto Galarza, Merchants of Labor, Charlotte/Santa Barbara: McNally & Lofton.

1964. "The Defeat of the Domestics." Pages 199 – 218 in Ernesto Galarza, Merchants of Labor, Charlotte/Santa Barbara: McNally & Lofton.

1964. "Alternatives to the Bracero." Pages 199 – 218 in Ernesto Galarza, Merchants of Labor, Charlotte/Santa Barbara: McNally & Lofton.

2013. "Action Research in Defense of the Barrio - Personal Manifesto." Pages 65 - 71 in Armando Ibarra and Rodolfo D. Torres, Man of Fire: Selected Writings, Ernesto Galarza. Urbana, Illinois: University of Illinois Press.

2013. "The Farm Laborer: His Economic and Social Outlook." Pages 224 - 235 in Armando Ibarra and Rodolfo D. Torres, Man of Fire: Selected Writings, Ernesto Galarza. Urbana, Illinois: University of Illinois Press.

Chicano/Latino
Faculty & Staff
Association

SJSU SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY