

Third Annual MAS Symposium at SJSU

Chicana and Chicano Studies @ 40: Maintaining the Pathway to Higher Education through Scholarship, Critical Thought, Activism and Commitment

Dr. Rudy Acuña, Emeritus Professor CSUN
NACCS Scholar, Activist and Author

Dr. Rhonda Rios Kravitz, Dean of the Learning Resources Center, Sacramento City College
Activist, Librarian, and Scholar

Saturday, April 28, 2012 · 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library
Room 225/229 - Second Floor
San José State University

Book signing of Acuña's new book The Making of Chicana/o Studies, the author of Occupied America (an Arizona banned book) follows.

Open to the Public

MLK Library located at
150 E. San Fernando St.
San José, CA
Street & Public
Parking Available

Sponsored by: SJSU Chicana/Latino Faculty and Staff Association, Cultural Heritage Center-King Library, Mexican American Studies, and the Northern California Foco of the National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies.

SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY