

The image features a monochromatic orange background with a faint, detailed illustration of the San José State University campus. The central focus is the university's name, 'SJSU SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY', rendered in a blue serif font. The 'SJSU' acronym is significantly larger than the full name, which is positioned to its right. The background illustration depicts a historic building with a prominent bell tower, surrounded by lush trees and palm trees. In the distance, a city skyline is visible against a hazy horizon.

Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC)

What is the LPCC?

- Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor
- CA state-level licensure since 2010
- All states have Master's-level counseling license (e.g., LPC, LMHC)
- Steps to Become licensed:
 1. Complete MA
 2. Apply to become PCCI
 3. Complete 3000 post-degree supervised hours
 4. Pass 2 exams:
 1. CA Law & Ethics Exam
 2. National Clinical Mental Health Counselor Examination (NCMHCE)

Why Become Licensed?

- Benefits

- Much broader counseling work/scope of practice
- Reimbursement by Medi-Cal and insurance
- Competitive for jobs variety of sectors/settings (e.g., agencies, medical, non-profit, schools, private practice)
- Transferable between states (may need to take additional steps, but being licensed in one state often expedites licensure in other states)

- LPCCs & School Counseling

- Focus of School Counselors
 - Academic
 - Socio-emotional
 - Career
- Greater scope of practice: Being licensed doesn't affect where you practice, it affects how you practice
- LPCCs are now competitive for jobs of LMFTs and LCSWs
