Salzburg Seminar Independent Travel and Hold-Harmless Statement

Please type or print clearly

I, _____, will be participating in a CSU-affiliated study abroad program through San José State University in Salzburg, Austria. I am aware that the program offers group transportation to and from the program site. I also know that participants in this program will be traveling as group from San Francisco to Salzburg, but I am voluntarily choosing to make my own travel arrangements back from the program site. I am aware that the official program dates are June 1-8, 2007. I understand that I am required to arrive at the program site by the first day and participate in the entire program until the final departure date. If I arrive late or depart early from the official program dates, I understand that I will be dropped from the program and I will not receive credit. If I do not participate in the entire program or if I am unable to fulfill my duties as a Salzburg Scholar during the 2007-2008 academic year (unless granted express written approval by the Program Leader for extenuating circumstances), I understand that I am obligated to reimburse the University for the full amount of my scholarship before being allowed to graduate. My participation in this program is voluntary.

I have been informed, and I understand that San José State University is in no way liable or responsible for me while I am traveling outside the official program dates. With this knowledge and information, I agree to participate in the program and I will travel independently at my own risk.

I release and hold harmless the State of California, the California State University system, San José State University (which is the campus affiliated with the program requiring the air travel) and each and every officer, employee and agent of each of them, from any and all claims and causes of action that I may have against any of these institutions or persons, by reason of any accident, illness, injury, death, or other consequences resulting directly or indirectly from or in any manner arising out of, or in connection with, my independent travel pursuant to my participation in the CSU-affiliated program. This release and hold-harmless shall also be binding on my heirs, assign, successors and all other persons who may claim through me.

The undersigned acknowledges that he/she has read the foregoing statement, understands the same, and affixes his/her signature.
