

Login Information

It is very important to associate your account with San Jose State University so that you can access the parts of the web site that are available only to those with paid memberships. See the instructions below for how to do this.

1. For those who already have an account on the Sloan Site

You will need to associate your existing account with SJSU.

1. Go to <http://sloanconsortium.org> and log in.
2. Scroll down to the navigation menu in small print at the bottom of the page. Under Membership, click on "Sloan-C Institutional members."
3. Click on the link labeled "Go to Your Profile page here"
4. Under "Professional Info," type "San Jose State University" and then select it when it pops up as an option.
5. Save (at the bottom of the page).
6. Log out (at upper right of page).
7. Log in again and you will have full access to the site.

2. For those setting up new accounts

1. Go to <http://sloanconsortium.org>
2. Click "Create an account" at the upper right of the page.
3. Enter a user name or email address, a password, and the word verification code. Then click "Create New Account" below.

Note: They want you to use your institutional email address here. You have the option, while creating your profile, to add a second email address where you prefer to receive mail.

Note: There are prompts that compel you to create a password that includes upper- and lower-case letters PLUS numbers PLUS punctuation.

4. Complete the form to create your profile. Click "Save"

Note: The form will auto-complete the Institution name (and affiliated number) which is San Jose State University.

We encourage you to take full advantage of SJSU's membership.
