Recommended Readings
Course Requirements and Assignments

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Key Semester Dates
First Day of Class – August 22
Last Day to Drop Classes – September 3
Case Study #1 Due – September 19
Proposal Due – October 1
Exam #1 – October 10
Case Study #2 Due – October 24
Final Proposal Attempt Deadline – October 31
Case Study #3 Due – November 21
Exam #2 – November 26
Final Project Due in Canvas – December 17

Participation
Participation will be assessed at random intervals through the semester. Participation is assessed via pop quizzes on the reading, project workshop participation, and other participation activities.

Case Studies
Students will submit three short written analyses on one of the cases we discuss. These analyses should run between 2 to 3 pages, double spaced, Times New Roman font, size 12, 1 inch margins. In these case studies, you will describe a court case, evaluate it on the grounds of economic efficiency, and either defend or critique the court decision using sound economic reasoning. You should treat these analyses as if you were asked to evaluate the economic efficiency of a case. A full rubric is provided along with suggested cases for you to choose from for each writing assignment. Case studies must be uploaded to Canvas in a Word Document (.doc or .docx).

Exams
There will be two exams in this course which will prepare you for a comp exam format. If a student must miss an exam, this should be discussed with me at least one week ahead of time. In the event of an emergency, students should email me immediately and provide documentation ASAP. Please note that if a student misses an exam and I have not accepted a student’s excuse, a grade of “0” will be given. If the absence is excused, the weight of the missing exam will be distributed across the remaining course material. Students should bring a Blue Book for the exam. Calculators are not permitted.

Final Project
As part of this course, each student will propose and submit a research project on a subject related to law and economics. The completed final project, in presentation format, is due in Canvas on the day of the university scheduled final exam, December 17. You may use a PowerPoint (.ppt) or a PDF (.pdf) file. A full rubric is provided. In addition to the presentation slides, you must include the analysis output file used to generate your results (Excel, R, Python, Stata, etc) with your submission.
Project Proposal

In order to prepare for the final project, you will submit a 1-2 page proposal in Canvas by October 1 (refer to the template). I will then approve this proposal or require adjustments before you proceed. You do not have to wait until the due date (and I recommend you don’t!) to submit this proposal. The proposal operates on a PASS/FAIL basis. You may find Booth and McCloskey particularly helpful when writing the proposal and final project. I will accept proposal resubmissions until October 31, at which point you will lose half-credit for the proposal if you have not earned a PASS yet.

Project Presentation

You will present a brief fifteen minute version of your final project at the end of the semester. The presentation must be emailed to me by midnight before the day of your presentation. Failure to do so will lead to a loss of points on the presentation. You should not attempt to present all your final project slides in this assignment, but rather present a briefer version of the overall project. You may use a PowerPoint or a PDF file. A full rubric is provided.

Grading Information

Determination of Grades

The final grade in the course will be based on the following weights:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Weight</th>

Classroom Protocol

Office Hours
The best way to contact me is by email at darwyn.deyo@sjsu.edu. My office hours are Thursday, 1:00 – 2:30pm in my office, DMH 142.

Academic Honesty
I take academic honesty very seriously and will follow the policies as published by SJSU. These policies are online and available at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm. It is the responsibility of the student to read and understand what constitutes a violation of the honor code. Claims of ignorance cannot be used to justify dishonest behaviors. All instances of academic dishonesty will be reported through the appropriate channels. In this course, any student caught engaging in activities which violate the honor code as written by the University will receive a semester grade of “F” for this course.

Disability Notice
Please see me as soon as possible if you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Disability Resource Center at http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/ to establish a record of their disability.

Other Class Policies

1. Students will show respect at all times for others. Class will begin on time and end on time. As such, students are expected to be on time.

2. So as to minimize any disruption to class, ensure that any electronic devices you bring with you to class are set to not produce any sounds during class. This includes setting cell phones to vibrate or silent and muting the speakers on laptops and tablets. Students using their cell phones or laptops for non-class related activities will be asked to leave the room.

3. Students must use their SJSU email to communicate with me regarding course material and messages related to this class. I will make an effort to reply to emails related to the course within 48 hours, excepting weekends, but I will not accept email attachments from non-SJSU emails.

4. I primarily use Canvas for announcements and for students to submit their written work. I encourage students to use Criterion before submitting their final paper to me in order to minimize the number of revisions. All final written work is automatically submitted to Turnitin. Additional materials can be found at http://www.darwyyndeyo.com/econ-241-law-and-economics.html.

5. Grades on Canvas do not necessarily reflect your class grade! You may request a grade check from me by email or with at least one class notice.

University Policies
Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/” Make sure to review these policies and resources.
ECON 241-01 / Seminar in Law and Economics, Fall 2019 Course Schedule

My proposed schedule for the semester follows. If it proves too ambitious, I will try to simply say less about each topic rather than cut the topics for the final weeks. In addition to the textbook readings for each week, students should read the articles associated with each topic posted here (http://www.darwyyndeyo.com/econ-241-law-and-economics.html).
