Course Description
The public sector. Determination of objectives of the public sector; pricing and output in the public sector; taxes, their distribution and allocative effects; public expenditure theory; public debt theory and policy.

Public Finance involves government revenue (taxes and debt) and spending, and their effects. Public finance is treated broadly to also analyze the revenues and spending for public goods by homeowner associations and other private-sector communities.

Course Learning Objectives
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

Understand the theory of public finance and the basic facts of U.S. public finance at a deep enough level to enable one to teach undergraduate public finance and explain public finance concepts to the public.

Course Content Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

Be able to conduct scholarly research in public finance.

Develop analytical skills and understanding in applying economics to public finance.

Develop scholarly writing and presentation skills.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

Other Readings

The other readings are linked on the class web site and are also indicated in the syllabus schedule below.

Classroom Protocol

1. In class, turn off cell phones, pagers, and other noisy electronic devices. Laptop computers and cell phones are not allowed in class.
2. For exams, plain calculators are permitted, but avoid using devices that can communicate with others.
3. All problem sets and the research project have to be submitted on paper, not as email attachments. This includes late submissions. Please do not send me any attachments.
4. Put "Econ 232" on the subject line when you send me an email message.

Please arrive on time. We will conduct this class as a graduate seminar. Rather than only listening to lectures, students should be prepared to discuss the assigned readings for each session. There will be a break around the midpoint of the class time.

Dropping and Adding
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/academic_programs/calendars/academic_calendar/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub.

Research project.

Choose a topic in public finance. The project will be due and graded in two stages as indicated in the schedule.
University Policies

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University’s Academic Integrity policy, located at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.

The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) at http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/ to establish a record of their disability.
