San José State University
San José, California

ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Specialization: Child & Adolescent Development
Job Opening ID (JOID): # 23763
Rank: Assistant Professor (Tenure-track)

Qualifications:
Required:
• doctorate in child and adolescent development or a related field by start of appointment;
• experience in research, policy, and/or practice in any aspect of child development such as cognitive, social/emotional, language, contextualized understanding of child development, early childhood education, children and families in community settings including practices, theory, and assessment;
• awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a diverse student population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching, and/or comparable experience;
• an established research program;
• successful university-level teaching experience.

Desirable:
• ability to work collaboratively across disciplines.

Responsibilities:
• teach undergraduate and some graduate courses;
• advise undergraduate and masters students;
• continue to develop a program of research;
• participate in shared governance, at all levels of the University; and
• address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, etnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 21, 2017

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.
Application Procedure:
For full consideration upload a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/ philosophy, research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by October 3, 2016 to apply.interfolio.com/36388. This position will be open until filled. Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.

Questions may be directed to Dr. Robin Love, at robin.love@sjsu.edu

Students in the Child and Adolescent Development department take courses that provide a foundation of knowledge across domains of development in social contexts. The program provides students interested in careers working with children with a preparation upon graduation for professions that serve children and their families, in schools and other community settings. For information about the department, visit our website at sjsu.edu/chad San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.