Course Description

English 1A is the first course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the “personal voice” and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

• Clear and effective communication of meaning.

• An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).

• The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).

• The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.

• Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources.

• Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.
• Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.
• Appropriate diction.
• Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

Student Learning Objectives:

SLO 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).

SLO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.

SLO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.

SLO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.

Information available online

You are responsible for reading the following information online at http://www.sjsu.edu/english/comp/policyforsyllabi.html

• Course guidelines
• Academic policies (academic integrity, plagiarism, ADA and DRC policies)
• Adding and dropping classes

Required Texts/Readings

Textbooks

Additional Materials

• internet/email/word processing/printing access
• college-level dictionary for in-class and formal essays
• stapler (all homework and papers must be stapled)
• binder clips (assignments with multiple drafts must be clipped together)
• four large green books for in-class essays
• one large yellow book for the final exam

Classroom Protocol
In order to earn participation credit for any class meeting, students must arrive on time with all required texts and materials. Partial credit will not be awarded to late students or those without necessary materials. Students who are disrespectful to any member of the class, including the instructor, will be asked to leave without participation credit.

Assignments and Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

Participation and Quizzes: 10% of the overall grade will be determined by participation in this class. In order to earn all possible points within this category, students must readily contribute to class discussions through questions, comments, and active listening. Students must show that they have been keeping up with the assignments by participating in class discussions and completing in-class work and quizzes. Those who come to class late or without the assigned materials can expect to earn no participation points for the day.

Cultural Myth Project: All students will be required to examine and report on one cultural myth from our textbook Rereading America. This report will be worth 5% of the final course grade. It will consist of a short writing response done individually and a group presentation. Detailed instructions will be provided during the first class meeting.

In-Class Essays: Students will write four in-class essays throughout the semester, the first being a diagnostic evaluation that will not be graded. The subsequent three in-class essays will each be worth 5% of the overall grade for a total of 15%. In-class essays missed will be lowered by one letter grade every day that they are late, including weekends. Note that I will only be available for make-up in-class essays on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Formal Essays: Students will write three formal essays in this class. Each essay will be worth 10% of the final grade. All formal essays must be written in 12-point Times New Roman font with 1” margins, must be double spaced, and must follow MLA guidelines. The length requirement for each essay is indicated on the list of assignments. Late papers will be marked down one grade for every day they are late, including weekends. Papers must be turned in at the beginning of class on the day they are due.

Formal essays must be turned in to TurnItIn.com, which is an online plagiarism detection service that scans essays for references to online sources, including papers submitted to SJSU or other universities and papers bought online. Instructions for turning in essays to this site will be provided and discussed in class prior to the first formal essay due date.

- Papers turned in late to turnitin.com will receive a late grade.
- Papers handed to the instructor after class will receive a late grade.
- All drafts must be attached with a binder clip, or the assignment will not be accepted and earn a late grade.
- All students must take part in the peer review process for each formal paper. Final papers submitted without a peer-reviewed rough draft or peer review sheet will be lowered by one full letter grade.

Reading Responses: Students must submit 10 reading responses as homework. Homework must be turned in at the beginning of the class day under which it is listed on the schedule of assignments. Together, these responses will comprise 20% of the final grade and must be 150 words each. Reading responses will appear as “RR” on the syllabus. These short discussions should analyze arguments presented in one or more articles students choose to discuss from Rereading America, not including the chapter introductions. Students may only respond to articles that have been assigned since the last “RR” due date. Therefore, responses to articles assigned earlier in the semester will earn no credit. All responses must be typed and must conform to the same formatting standards as formal essays. Each reading response must be numbered appropriately or it will not be accepted. Reading responses not submitted on time will receive no credit.

Final Exam: All students must take the final exam on Saturday, December 7th in order to pass English 1A. This exam is worth 20% of the final grade. Bring an unmarked yellow exam booklet, black or blue pens, and a standard, non-electric dictionary.

Extra Credit: There is no extra credit in this class. Keep track of your grade throughout the semester by paying careful attention to grades earned on each assignment returned to you. Getting help from the instructor and tutors will ensure that your writing improves with each assignment and that you are more likely to earn the grade you desire by the end of the semester.

Final Grade Calculations:

Participation: 10%
Cultural Myth Presentation 5%
3 In–Class Essays: 15%
3 Formal Essays: 30%
10 Reading Responses: 20%
Final Exam: 20%
Student Technology Resources

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library.

A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include digital and VHS camcorders, VHS and Beta video players, 16 mm, slide, overhead, DVD, CD, and audiotape players, sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

Peer Connections

Peer Connections offers free mentoring and tutoring services to undergraduate SJSU students. They encourage students to become independent learners who are engaged with their campus experience. Their mentors and tutors are SJSU students, just like you - they understand the challenges you may be facing, and will assist you to the best of their abilities. They offer mentors, tutoring, and workshops. Information regarding these services can be found at http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu

SJSU Writing Center

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. The writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff/.

Peer Mentor Center

The Peer Mentor Center is located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall in the Academic Success Center. The Peer Mentor Center is staffed with Peer Mentors who excel in helping students manage university life, tackling problems that range from academic challenges to interpersonal struggles. On the road to graduation, Peer Mentors are navigators, offering “roadside assistance” to peers who feel a bit lost or simply need help mapping out the locations of campus resources. Peer Mentor services are free and available on a drop-in basis, no reservation required. The Peer Mentor Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/muse/peermentor/
