Course Description
English 1A is the first course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the “personal voice” and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT, such as LLD 2.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

GE Learning Outcomes:
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to do the following:

LO 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).

LO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.
LO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.

LO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.

Additionally, students will achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
- An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).
- The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
- The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.
- Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources.
- Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.
- Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.
- Appropriate diction.
- Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

Other Required Textbooks

All books can be purchased at Spartan Books and through Internet sellers, some of which can be accessed through this link: http://www.sjsu.edu/english/donations/. Be sure that any text you buy has the correct ISBN (as indicated in the listings above).

Required Web/Internet Readings and Online Resources:

Albert Einstein, “An Ideal of Service to Our Fellow Man”
http://thisibelieve.org/essay/16465/

Morris Mchawia Mwavizo, “There Is Always a Way Out”
http://thisibelieve.org/essay/133302/

Elizabeth (No last name given), “This I Believe”  http://thisibelieve.org/essay/17709/

You can access the SJSU Library online:  http://library.sjsu.edu/
Other Required Materials:
You will need to bring paper (I recommend a notebook with detachable pages) plus a supply of blue or black ink pens to class each day. You will need to bring “blue books” (paper exam booklets, often green these days) for the in-class Writing Sample assignment at our second class meeting and for all subsequent in-class essays. I strongly recommend a decent-sized folder for storing all your work during the semester: you will need to refer to previous assignments when writing your final reflection essay at the end of the course.

Classroom and General Protocols
Our classroom environment is everyone’s responsibility. You are required to be courteous to your classmates and to the instructor. People sometimes forget that the classroom is a professional setting where the rules that govern a business meeting typically apply. For example, electronic devices such as cellular phones and laptop computers need to be turned off (unless a particular activity warrants their use, in which case the instructor will clearly indicate that), and you should avoid coming to class late: this impacts your learning and can also be distracting for everyone else.

If an emergency arises that requires your absence from class, or you are taken ill, you would do well to contact the instructor at your earliest opportunity by email. Simply prioritizing your education behind other time commitments does not constitute an emergency. However, life happens; stay in touch, so you can avoid falling behind in this fast-paced, intensive course. Exchanging contact info with at least one other student in the course is also a very good idea.

Academic protocols for written work require that all quotations must be enclosed in quotation marks or, when more than three lines, put in an indented block. Full citation of the original author and source must also be included. For all papers, review The Everyday Writer for help with quote integration, formatting, and citation. See the SJSU policy on Academic Integrity (http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/static/catalog/integrity.html) for help defining and avoiding plagiarism.

Student Technology Resources
Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library.

SJSU Writing Center
The SJSU Writing Center is located in Clark Hall, Suite 126. All Writing Specialists have gone through a rigorous hiring process, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. In addition to one-on-one tutoring services, the Writing Center also offers workshops every semester on a variety of writing topics. To make an appointment or to refer to the numerous online resources offered through the Writing Center, visit the Writing Center website: http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter. For additional resources and updated information, follow the Writing Center on Twitter and become a fan of the SJSU Writing Center on Facebook.

SJSU Peer Connections

The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) and the Peer Mentor Program have merged to become Peer Connections. Peer Connections is the new campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring. Our staff is here to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. Students are encouraged to take advantage of our services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals.

In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. Workshops are offered on a wide variety of topics including preparing for the Writing Skills Test (WST), improving your learning and memory, alleviating procrastination, surviving your first semester at SJSU, and other related topics. A computer lab and study space are also available for student use in Room 600 of Student Services Center (SSC).

Peer Connections is located in three locations: SSC, Room 600 (10th Street Garage on the corner of 10th and San Fernando Street), at the 1st floor entrance of Clark Hall, and in the Living Learning Center (LLC) in Campus Village Housing Building B. Visit the Peer Connections website at http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu for more information.

Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

This course must be passed with a C or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

In English Department Courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog ("The Grading System"). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

In written assignments for English 1A, this scale is based on the following criteria:
A [90-92=A-, 93-96=A, 97-100=A+] = Excellent: The “A” essay is articulate and well developed with fluid transitions and a clear and persuasive use of examples, evidence, or research materials. An “A” essay contains a fresh insight which teaches the reader something new about the subject matter.

B [80-82=B-, 83-86=B, 87-89=B+] = Above average: The “B” essay demonstrates a good understanding of its subject, a clear and persuasive use of examples or evidence, a certain level of ease of expression, and solid organization. However, it usually lacks the level of originality and creativity that characterizes the insight found in an “A” essay.

C [70-72=C-, 73-76=C, 77-79=C+] = Average: The “C” essay makes a good attempt at all the assignment’s requirements. It has a reasonable understanding of its subject matter but its ideas are frequently simplistic or over-generalized. The writing style is also more bland and repetitive than the style shown by “A” and “B” essays and it often contains flaws in grammar, punctuation, spelling and/or word choice. It may also use examples or evidence out of context.

D [60-62=D-, 63-66=D, 67-69=D+] = Below Average: The “D” essay is poorly organized and generally unclear. It has inappropriate or inadequate examples, is noticeably superficial or simplistic, and/or contains some serious mechanical and grammatical problems. A “D” essay may also reveal some misunderstanding of the assignment requirements.

F = Failure: An “F” essay has not addressed the requirements of the assignment and is unacceptable work in terms of both form and content.

Turnitin.com Requirement and Late Penalties

Final drafts of formal written assignments must also be submitted through Turnitin.com http://turnitin.com/ in order to receive a grade. Your Turnitin.com Course ID is 7460978 and your Password is bbc120. You will need these to log in and submit work.

Late penalties will initially be based on whether or not a paper copy has been turned in, on time, in class. If neither the paper copy nor the turnitin.com version has been submitted on the day an assignment is due, 10% of the possible points (one full letter grade) will automatically be deducted from any grade the essay earns. If more than a week has passed after a due date and both paper and electronic versions have not been submitted, the paper will not be accepted without prior instructor approval. The only way to avoid such penalties is to contact the instructor in writing before the due date to explain your particular situation and to request a possible extension. Please note that any extension will be given at the instructor’s sole discretion.

Please note: Any assignment not turned in or not accepted because it is submitted too late will receive a zero, resulting in 0% or No Credit on that assignment. This applies to formal written assignments, in-class essay exams, informal writings, and class activities.

Course Grade Calculation Overview

Your final course grade will be determined based on a combination of formal written assignments, in-class essay exams, informal writing assignments, and class participation. More specifics on each are available in the Assignments table (Table 1) and in the Course Schedule table (Table 2). A brief listing and some basic information follow.
Paper One: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 10% of course grade
Paper Two: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 15% of course grade
Paper Three: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 15% of course grade
Paper Four: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 20% of course grade
Paper Five (Portfolio Final Exam): Letter Grade basis, A-F; 15% of course grade
In-Class Essay Exam 1: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 5% of course grade
In-Class Essay Exam 2: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 5% of course grade
Informal Writings: Credit, Partial Credit, or No Credit basis; 10% of course grade.
Class Participation: Credit, Partial Credit, or No Credit basis; 5% of course grade.

Please note: Class Participation credit will mainly be based on specific course activities, including the initial Writing Sample, group work, and Final Presentation. Your participation grade will also be determined based on your overall contribution to the course throughout the semester.

University policy F69-24: “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading”

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, students are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Final Assignment:

Instead of a final exam, you will write a critical reflection at the end of the class. Think of it as a scientific study of your progress as a writer over the next four months. Remember, writing is a process. Collecting your work and then reflecting on that work is part of the process. The final assignment is designed to get you thinking about your specific challenges, your strategies for improvement, your successes and failures, and your goals for the future. Every writer, no matter how accomplished, has room for improvement. This assignment is your culminating experience. This course does not have a final exam.
English 1A, Section 40, Spring 2014 Course Schedule Table (Table 2)

This schedule is subject to change with reasonable notice given in class and via Canvas and email. Expect, for example, readings in The Everyday Writer [EW] and Learning Curve [LC] activities to be assigned in addition to what is listed below. Further topics and tasks for Informal Writings [IW] will also be announced as student needs and skill sets become apparent.
