Instructor: S. Knapp   Email: Knapps7@gmail.com   Office: FO 217   Office Hours: Wednesdays 1:30-2:30
(except during student conference weeks—see schedule) and by arrangement.

Classes:
Section 3 (23732) meets M/W 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. in BBC 122
Section 5 (23734) meets M/W from 12:00 p.m. -1:15 p.m. in BBC
Section 8 (29804) meets M/W 3:00-4:15 pm. Clark Building 302

Prerequisites: Passed ENGL 1B or equivalent; taken WST at least once without passing.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
Serves as alternative satisfaction of the WST requirement if passed with a C or better (C- or lower will not satisfy the WST). Prepares students for 100W through drafting, feedback, and revision to demonstrate writing competency. Develops ability to analyze written genres used in the students’ chosen disciplines as well as write analytical and reflective essays.

COURSE GOALS
ENGL/LLD 100A is one course taught in two different departments. It is designed with the goal of preparing you to succeed in 100W, other upper division classes, and your profession. You will have intensive practice in prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing academic writing. You will be asked to research, analyze, and reflect on various kinds of writing and to produce a minimum of 5000 words, including a rhetorical analysis, a report about writing in your chosen discipline, and a five critical reflective journals on a book-length work of fiction or non-fiction.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES (SLOs)
By the end of the course, students will be able to:

a. Use correct and situationally appropriate sentence structure and grammar;
b. Utilize feedback from instructor and peers to improve the accuracy and clarity of writing;
c. Recognize, select, and use basic activities of the writing process, including prewriting, organizing, drafting, revising, editing, and peer review;
d. Critically self-reflect about the writing process and about making context-appropriate rhetorical choices;
e. Critically read, interpret, and synthesize multiple texts;
f. Write well organized, well developed essays with a clear thesis;
g. Identify how types of written texts in a variety of fields (genres) are influenced by audience, situation, and purpose;
h. Employ research strategies to collect, analyze, and evaluate data from primary and secondary sources.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS AND MATERIALS
- Instructor-made Course Reader “Rhetoric and Composition” http://www.magcloud.com/browse/issue/680464
- A college-level English dictionary
- Internet access

TUTORING AND OTHER RESOURCES

- Writing Center: 1st floor, Clark Hall, http://www.sjsu.edu/writing-center
- Peer Connections locations: http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/
  - 1st floor, Clark Hall
  - Student Services Center 600
  - Living Learning Center, Campus B village, 1st Floor
- Students ARE REQUIRED to use these tutoring resources that are provided free of charge to all SJSU students. The instructor is not responsible for one-on-one sentence-level assistance—it is the job of the student to utilize the ample resources on campus that provide this service. Note: Neither the instructor nor the tutors will provide editing services. Students must learn to take ownership of their writing and learn to correct their own mistakes with the help and guidance of tutors, course materials and instructor. Now is the time to tackle this challenge.
- Computer hardware and software assistance – please see Help Desk, First floor, Clark Hall

ONLINE RESOURCES
1. Go to the Canvas URL Log In: http://sjsu.instructure.com
2. You will see a log in page. Log in with your 9-digit SJSU ID and password you use for
3. Your SJSUOne account. (NOTE: You must update your password each semester)
4. Click LOGIN to access your Canvas account

- Turnitin.com: We will be using Turnitin.com for the three main writing assignments. The turnitin.com link and directions are embedded in Canvas. You will need to establish an account. I will provide Class ID and Password.
- Criterion: Students are advised to utilize this service for all three papers. Instructions will be discussed in class. The Criterion link is also embedded into Canvas.

CLASS RULES AND PARTICIPATION
In order to pass this class, you must plan on attending every class session. You must also reserve time to complete the assigned reading and writing DAILY.

This class is not a lecture course. The majority of class time will actively involve students with the course material. Individual activities, partner projects and/or group discussion and problem-solving sessions will result in participation points. Students must actively participate in classroom activities in order to earn points. In other words, just showing up to class will earn a student zero points. Active participation in classroom activities will earn a student full-credit for participation points. Participation points may also include activities such as in-class reading and writing assignments, discussion, quizzes, and presentations. Participation points cannot be made up. Please be aware that all absences equal zero participation points for that day and these lost points add up very quickly.

HOMEWORK: ALL STUDENTS WILL COMPLETE A SERIES OF LEARNING LOG ASSIGNMENTS.
LEARNING LOGS PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS TO LEARN ACTIVELY THROUGH REVISION, PERSONAL REFLECTION, AND EXERCISES TARGETING ERRORS SPECIFIC TO THEIR OWN WRITING.

Please note: Students should accumulate up to 25 points through participation and homework (Learning Logs) by the 12th week of the semester. These points are vitally important to obtaining enough points to move onto the Final Portfolio. For example, even a student who received an “A” on all three formal papers, would only earn 65 points by the 12th week without any participation/homework points. Students must have a of minimum points (70) to be approved for moving onto the Portfolio Project by the 14th week (see grading policy below). All students who do not have 70 points by the 14th week will not be invited to complete the Portfolio Project and will receive an “F” in the course. Please also carefully read about the petition process below to better understand why classroom attendance, attitude, effort and completing assignments on time is vitally important to your success in this course.

REGARDING CELL PHONES…

Theater Policy: Although we may occasionally use digital devices in class, because this is an accelerated class that requires participation in active learning, the instructor subscribes to the standard theater policy: All digital devices must be turned off for the duration of the class period. If a student continues to have difficulty with this mandatory course requirement, the instructor will ask the student to place the device at the front podium for the duration of class.

RESPECT

Learning occurs most productively in a safe, respectful environment. Students are expected to respect other people's opinions even if they don't agree with them. Differences of viewpoints, orientation, and experience are expected and welcomed in class discussions. That said, students are not expected to silently tolerate inappropriate behavior. If at any time you don't feel safe or respected, please talk to me before or after class or e-mail me at any time.

GRADING POLICY AND ASSIGNMENTS

This is a portfolio-based writing class. Your final grade for the course will be based on scores given to your portfolio and your final exam.

Eligibility points: During the first 14 weeks of the semester, you will earn eligibility points for each assignment or activity that is required as well as for participation. The maximum number of points is 100. You must have at least 70 points to be eligible to submit your portfolio and take the final exam. If you have not earned the minimum of 70 points by the end of the 14th week of the semester, you will receive an F in the class and you will not be able to submit your portfolio. The points you receive prior to submitting your portfolio and the feedback you receive from your instructor on your drafts are intended to ensure that you have a complete portfolio, strong participation in the class, and improvement in your writing through feedback and drafting. The points you receive during this time will not be calculated as part of the final grade. They are simply an entry ticket that allows you to submit your portfolio and take the final exam.

You are encouraged to use the tutoring services on campus if you or your instructor feels that you need additional support, but all work is expected to be your own. If the instructor has reason to believe otherwise, then he or she has the right to require additional evidence that the work is your own.
Final grade: In the final weeks of the semester, you will assemble your portfolio, write a brief cover letter, and write an in-class final essay. Your final grade will be based on the scores given to your portfolio and final exam by two readers. The portfolio is worth 70% and the final exam is worth 30% of the final grade. (see grading rubric and grading scale included in this greensheet). To receive a C or higher for this course, you must receive at least 70% out of 100% on your portfolio and final exam combined.

After the portfolio and final exam are scored, the instructor may choose to petition a low-pass portfolio or final exam for a higher score if she or he believes the score is inaccurate. To be considered for such a petition, the student must be in good standing in the course and have excellent, consistent participation in all classroom activities. Students who fail the portfolio may, on the recommendation of the instructor, have one more opportunity to revise during finals week.

DROPPING THE COURSE

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/academic_programs/calendars/academic_calendar/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. If you pass the WST after the drop deadline, you will not be able to drop 100A or withdraw without penalty. You will only be allowed to withdraw for the reasons specified in the late drop policy. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

GRADING: 100A is graded A-F. CR/NCR is not an option in this course because a “credit” in 100A will not serve as alternative satisfaction of the WST requirement (students must receive a C or better in order to fulfill the WST requirement).

INCOMPLETES: No incompletes will be given for 100A.

OTHER IMPORTANT COURSE POLICIES

1. Statement of Plagiarism: The LLD and English Departments would like to emphasize that we adhere strictly to the rules against plagiarism as set forth in the SJSU Catalog. The Catalog defines plagiarism as follows:

   1.2.1 Plagiarism. At SJSU, plagiarism is the act of representing the work of another as one’s own (without giving appropriate credit) regardless of how that work was obtained, and submitting it to fulfill academic requirements. Plagiarism at SJSU includes but is not limited to:

   1.2.2 The act of incorporating the ideas, words, sentences, paragraphs, or parts thereof, or the specific substance of another’s work, without giving appropriate credit, and representing the product as one’s own work; and

   1.2.3 Representing another’s artistic/scholarly works such as musical compositions, computer programs, photographs, paintings, drawing, sculptures or similar works as one’s own (available at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html - Student Responsibilities - Discipline – Policy on Academic Dishonesty – 1.0 Definitions of Academic Dishonesty

Should a student plagiarize in any ENGL or LLD 100A course, the instructor will report the student to the University’s Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. Also, points will be deducted from the assignment/course depending on the severity of the policy violation.

How to avoid plagiarism. It is not always easy to recognize whether you are legitimately citing the work of others or whether you have “crossed the line” into plagiarism. To become acquainted with what plagiarism is and how to avoid it, the following SJSU website offers definitions, policies, and links to useful websites offering guidelines in plagiarism prevention. Students are fully accountable for understanding these policies. www.sjlibrary.org/services/literacy/info_comp/plagiarism.htm

2. Academic integrity statement (from Office of Judicial Affairs): Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San José State University and the University’s Academic Integrity Policy requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the Office of Judicial Affairs. The policy on academic integrity can be found at http://www2.sjsu.edu/senate/S04-12.pdf

3. Academic Honesty: Faculty will make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct in their courses. They will secure examinations and their answers so that students cannot have prior access to them and proctor examinations to prevent students from copying or exchanging information. They will be on the alert for plagiarism. Faculty will provide additional information, ideally on the green sheet, about other unacceptable procedures in class work and examinations. Students who are caught cheating will be reported to the Judicial Affairs Officer of the University, as prescribed by Academic Senate Policy S04-12.

4. Campus policy in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act: If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/ to establish a record of their disability. AEC’s phone number is 924-6000.

5. Expectations about classroom behavior; see Academic Senate Policy S90-5 on Student Rights and Responsibilities. (http://www2.sjsu.edu/senate/s90-5.htm).

6. If you would like to include in your paper any material you have submitted, or plan to submit, for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Integrity policy S04-12 requires approval by both instructors. (http://www2.sjsu.edu/senate/S04-12.pdf and academic dishonesty http://sa.sjsu.edu/download/judicial/Academic_Dishonesty_Policy.pdf).

7. Evacuation plan for the classroom. See posted information in classroom.
