ENGL 1A Course Description

English 1A is an introductory writing course that will help students understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, students will develop clear thinking and effective writing that give form and coherence to complex ideas. Students will practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

ENGL 1A Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to
1. communicate meaning clearly and effectively;
2. identify focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose;
3. perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing);
4. explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively;
5. use within an essay supporting material drawn from primary and secondary sources, including appropriate citations;
6. organize individual paragraphs and entire essays;
7. construct sentences with accuracy, variety, and clarity;
8. use appropriate diction and tone;
9. control conventions of written English (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

GE Area A2 Course Description

ENGL 1A fulfills the written communication general education requirement. Courses in GE Area A2 cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing in the university. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. A passing grade of C or better signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

GE A2 Learning Outcomes (GELO)

In addition to the learning objectives stated above, ENGL 1A also measures the learning goals of GE Area A2. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to

1. demonstrate the ability to read actively and rhetorically;
2. demonstrate the ability to perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
3. articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
4. demonstrate the ability to integrate their ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
5. demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.

ENGL 1A Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. Students will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct their own arguments on complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing:
Writing assignments shall give students repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 8000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Because in-class writing is valued and students should be able to perform well in timed writing situations, at least two essays shall be written in class. In addition, ENGL 1A classes require multiple out-of-class essays.

Reading: We will be reading many different forms of essays from diverse writers, thinkers, and scholars. We will also read instructional texts on rhetoric that explore rhetorical theory and other theories and practices for responding to texts. We will be reading and studying different types of texts as we practice analyzing, writing, and finding different ways to engage with and respond to texts and the world.

Final Experience: The final experience for this course is a portfolio of your work and reflective analysis in which you reflect on yourself as a writer and your journey as a writer and scholar throughout this course. DO NOT THROW AWAY ANY of the graded essay portfolios that I hand back to you! Keep them as you will hand them all in for this Reflective Analysis/Final Portfolio. We will go over this assignment in class and discuss it throughout the semester. There will also be a brief meeting with me at the end of the semester to hand in this Reflective Analysis/Final Portfolio and discuss the work you have done.

Required Texts

- Blue Books
- Folder for in-class handouts
- Paper and writing instrument
- Stapler for all assignments
- Computer access or a personal computer or laptop
- Access to Canvas and SJSU E-mail

- Texts will be provided unless otherwise announced, in which case ample time will be given to acquire texts.

More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3.

Grading Policy

• An “A” essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.

• A “B” essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical or usage errors.

• A “C” essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.

• A “D” essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.

• An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

Course Grades:

In addition to standard letter grades (A-F), a number of other grading marks can be assigned for the course.

• "W" (Withdrawal): If a “W” symbol appears next to a student’s name on your grade roster, he or she was permitted to drop the course after the fourteenth day of instruction with the approval of the Director of Academic Services. It carries no connotation of quality of student performance and is not used in calculating grade point average or progress points.

• “WU” (Withdrawal Unauthorized): The symbol "WU" indicates that an enrolled student did not officially withdraw from or drop the course and failed to complete course requirements. This grade is assigned by the instructor and is appropriate for students who have disappeared from or never attended class. For purposes of calculating the grade point average, this symbol is equivalent to an "F". A “WU” should not be used in place of a failing grade.

• “I” (Incomplete): Students who fall behind toward the end of the semester often ask for incompletes. An “I” is typically reserved for students who for legitimate reasons (health, personal emergencies) are unable to meet all the course requirements. A grade of an incomplete is appropriate for students who have attended a major portion of the semester and who have completed the majority of required assignments. Please consider the student’s situation carefully before assigning an incomplete. If you give a student an “I,” you will need to work with him/her the following semester to complete the course. An “I” is not to be assigned to students who complete all course assignments and have an “F” average. These students should receive a failing grade for the course. When you post an “I” on the grade roster, you will be prompted to provide reasons justifying the mark.
To clear an incomplete, the student must complete all required work within one year. If the incomplete is not cleared within one year, the “I” is computed as an "F" in the student's grade point average. Clearance of Incomplete forms are available in the department office. The form must be signed by the instructor.

Note: For students to pass the course, they must earn a C or higher.

Classroom Protocol

Attendance

Regular attendance and participation is mandatory. You cannot do well in this course if you are not present and ready to participate in exercises, workshop, peer review, and discussions. Exchange information with a classmate so you can find out what you have missed if you ever miss a class. Also, as you can see on this syllabus participation counts as 15% of your final grade. This percent is determined by handing in of peer review sheets, by your attendance (a major factor for this 15%*), and by your participation in class.

*I give everyone three absences, unexcused, before absences start having a major impact on the 15% of your grade that is participation. I strongly recommend not missing more than three classes without excused absences. TALK TO ME if you need to miss more than three classes, please, and let’s discuss.

Written Assignments

- All essays must follow standard MLA style as well as guidelines
- 12pt Times New Roman Font, double-spaced, 1-inch Top and Bottom margins and standard margins.
- Each essay must meet the minimum length as specified by assignment and must fulfill all aspects of the assignment. Works Cited page does not count for page length.
- Papers must be submitted IN HARD COPY FORM ONLY. E-mailed essays will not be accepted.
- Papers must be submitted on time or the paper is an F unless otherwise determined for extenuating circumstances. However, even if there are extenuating circumstances and the paper is accepted it will drop one full letter grade for each class it is late.
- Papers must be stapled with numbered pages according to MLA style.

Electronics

- There will be times we may use devices and during those times I will let you know it is okay to use devices.
- There will be other times when I will require all devices be put away. Please don’t let devices become an issue, or I will have to say something to you about this and this will lower your participation grade.

Plagiarism

At SJSU, plagiarism is defined as “the act of representing the work of another as one’s own (without giving appropriate credit) regardless of how that work was obtained, and submitting it to fulfill academic requirements.” Plagiarism is a serious academic offense and can result in failure of the assignment, course, and disciplinary action including in some instances dismissal from SJSU.
University Policies

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student
As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90–5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding
Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material
University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
  - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
  - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Academic integrity
Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.
