GE Area A3 Course Description

In critical thinking courses, students will understand logic and its relationship to language. Courses include a series of integrated reading, writing, oral, and research assignments that engage students in complex issues requiring critical thinking and effective argumentation. Students will develop language that distinguishes fact and judgment; articulates elementary inductive and deductive processes; parses fact, assumption and conclusion; integrates rebuttal and qualification as appropriate. Students will develop the ability to analyze, criticize, and advocate complex ideas, reason inductively and deductively, research and rebut information and arguments, and reach well-supported factual conclusions and judgments.

ENGL 2 Course Description

General Course Description

English 2 focuses on the relationship between language and logic in composing arguments. Students develop strategies that incorporate critical reading and thinking skills into the writing process. Drawing on systems of analysis from rhetorical theorists and logicians (for instance, Aristotle, Rogers, and Toulmin, among others), students learn systematic reasoning so that they can lay out premises clearly, provide evidence, and draw valid conclusions. Reading a variety of texts, students study conventions of formal writing as well as textual cues that control the development of logical inferences.
Section-Specific Course Description
Our course theme will be “Music and Culture,” with a specific focus on American popular music and its relationship to American culture. We will explore the ways popular music—which includes contemporary genres like hip hop, rap, rock, punk, metal, electronica, country, R & B, “pop,” and more—both reflects and influences who we are and how we see ourselves. We will consider a range of texts that include songs, music videos, critical articles, music reviews, and sociohistorical analyses. Through tracing the state and cultural relevance of American popular music, from its roots in the recent past to its current forms, we will also think about the roles that technology, commerce, and government play in determining which voices and messages get heard in America today—and to what effect.

ENGL 2 Learning Outcomes

GE Area A3 Learning Outcomes (GELO)
Students will demonstrate, orally and in writing, proficiency in the Area of A3 Learning Objectives. Students will be able to

1. locate and evaluate sources, through library research, and integrate research through appropriate citation and quotation;
2. present effective arguments that use a full range of legitimate rhetorical and logical strategies to articulate and explain their positions on complex issues in dialogue with other points of view;
3. effectively locate, interpret, evaluate, and synthesize evidence in a comprehensive way in support of one’s ideas;
4. identify and critically evaluate the assumptions in and the context of an argument;
5. effectively distinguish and convey inductive and deductive patterns as appropriate, sequencing arguments and evidence logically to draw valid conclusions and articulate related outcomes (implications and consequences).

ENGL 2 Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to

1. discuss complex ideas clearly, logically, persuasively;
2. state a clear position while taking into account other points of view, integrating both qualification and rebuttal as appropriate;
3. identify the different kinds of argument and the kinds of evidence appropriate to each one;
4. integrate research logically and ethically; analyzing, interpreting, synthesizing, and documenting information and ideas gleaned from reliable sources;
5. use appropriate paragraph and essay conventions to organize arguments into clear, readable logical sequences that are both coherent and persuasive;
6. control syntax, grammar, and punctuation to develop prose that is readable, logical, and clear;
7. identify formal argumentative structures (warrants, evidence, qualification, rebuttal, enthymemes and syllogisms) and distinguish common logical fallacies;
8. draw and assess inferences and recognize distinctions among assumptions, facts, inferences, and opinions.

ENGL 2 Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. Students will engage in integrated reading, writing, and oral assignments to construct their own arguments on complex issues (such as diversity and ethnicity, class and social equity) that generate meaningful public debate. Readings and texts discussed during the course will include writers from different ethnicities, genders, and classes.

Writing:
Students will write a series of essays informed by research and articulating fully developed arguments about complex issues. Assignments emphasize those skills and activities in writing and thinking that produce the persuasive argument and the critical essay, each of which demands analysis, interpretation, and evaluation. Writing assignments give students repeated practice in prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Assignments include both in-class writing as well as revised out-of-class essays.

Logic:
Students will learn methods of argument analysis, both rhetorical and logical, that will allow them to
• distinguish denotation from connotation, abstract from concrete, literal from inferential;
• identify logical structures (such as warrants, evidence, qualification, rebuttal; enthymemes and syllogisms) and distinguish common logical fallacies;
• recognize and evaluate assumptions underlying an argument;
• draw and assess inferences and recognize distinctions among assumptions, facts, inferences and opinions;
• distinguish the role of audience, context, and purpose in shaping argumentation strategies;
• evaluate rhetorical appeals to understand the role of emotion and ethos in relation to logic as part of effective argumentation.

Oral Assignments:
Each student will complete an oral presentation, with multimedia elements, providing a rhetorical analysis of a chosen song. This presentation will include audio/visual elements that help the student explain the content and sociocultural context of the song, while the majority of the presentation will focus on analyzing the argument the song makes. Analysis will include attention to specific logical structures (logos) in the song’s argument and use of other appeals (ethos and pathos) to accomplish a specific purpose by persuading a specific audience. Students will also present final overviews of their major persuasive arguments and related research during the final exam class meeting.

Reading:
Our readings for this course will include sociohistorical and critical analysis of music and related cultural trends and issues, and they will also include persuasive arguments regarding various musical and music-related topics. In addition, we will consider a variety of texts—like songs, music videos, films, and websites—that will help us explore audiovisual rhetoric and think critically about various forms of “new media.” Selected readings in The Structure of Argument textbook will provide further examples of argumentative writing and frameworks for analyzing and employing various rhetorical techniques and logical structures.
Research: ENGL 2 includes a library orientation conducted or approved by a trained librarian to introduce the library and basic research strategies that students will need to complete upper-division coursework, including locating materials, using them effectively (e.g., quoting, paraphrasing, summarizing), and citing them properly.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbooks
Our main textbook on argumentation, logic, and critical thinking and writing

Other textbook options: ISBN 9781457662355 (Print) or 9781457691423 (eText)
LaunchPad ISBN and link: 9781457691300 ($9.99)

Whichever option(s) you select, be sure you have access to the textbook AND access to the LaunchPad website, because we’ll be working through some of the interactive learning activities on the website (and you will find them helpful).

Our main textbook on American music and culture

ISBN: 9780205956807 or 9780205956807 (Same ISBN for Print and eText)
Renting a digital version is a good option! Available through bookstore or direct through CourseSmart at http://www.coursesmart.com/IR/6096131/9780205957590?__hdv=6.8

Other Readings
We will be reading a variety of additional articles, including music criticism, that relate to our larger course theme. Some of these, you will be asked to locate yourself and share with the rest of the class; the rest will be provided through Canvas and email, or they will be shared in class for discussion (as handouts, as links you can access on your own devices, or through classroom projection systems). Your “readings” will include texts like songs and music videos, too.

ENGL 2 Course Requirements and Assignments
SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to satisfy CORE GE Area A3. Please review the percentage ranges below for each grade you can earn in the course, including plus/minus grades. Please note: No grades will be rounded up at the end of the semester; to earn a particular grade, your final percentage in the class must fall within the specified range. (Example: 80.2% earns you a B-; 79.9% earns you a C+)

In first-year writing courses, the grading scale is generally based on the following criteria and percentages:

- A [90-92=A-, 93-96=A, 97-100=A+] = Excellent: An “A” essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.
- B [80-82=B-, 83-86=B, 87-89=B+] = Above Average: A “B” essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.
- C [70-72=C-, 73-76=C, 77-79=C+] = Average: A “C” essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.
- D [60-62=D-, 63-66=D, 67-69=D+] = Below Average: A “D” essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.
- F [59 or less] Failure: An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.
Canvas Submission (Turnitin.com) Requirement and Late Penalties

Rough drafts and final drafts of formal written assignments will be reviewed on Turnitin.com, as will some of our Informal Writing (IW) assignments, for potential plagiarism. To receive any credit on each of these assignments, you must upload an electronic copy to Canvas (no separate submission to turnitin.com is required).

If neither the paper copy nor the electronic version of an assignment is submitted, on time, on the day an assignment is due, 10% of the possible points (one full letter grade) will be automatically deducted from any grade the essay earns. If more than a week has passed after a due date and both paper and electronic versions have not been submitted, the assignment will not be accepted without prior instructor approval.

The only way to avoid late penalties is to contact the instructor in writing before the due date to explain your particular situation and to request a possible extension. Please note that any extension will be given at the instructor’s sole discretion. Similarly, if you miss an in-class essay exam, any make-up exam will be offered at the instructor’s sole discretion: depending on the circumstances, a grade penalty might also apply.

There is one exception to these stated penalties and procedures. Your final essay, your Persuasive Argument with Research, will be subject to special conditions due to the limited time frame at the end of the semester. These will be clearly specified and explained when the essay is assigned.

Please note: Any assignment not turned in or not accepted—for whatever reason—will receive a zero, resulting in 0% or No Credit on that assignment. This applies to formal written assignments (first and final drafts), in-class essays, informal writings, quizzes, and class activities (including Canvas-based activities).

Course Grade Calculation Overview

Your final course grade will be determined based on a combination of formal written assignments, in-class essays that you will revise, informal writing assignments, and class participation (details follow below). A brief listing and some basic information follow; your letter grade will be based on your total points earned out of a possible 1,000 points for the semester and your resulting overall percentage (see grading scale, above).

Critical Essay with Research: Out of 200 points; 20% of course grade
Persuasive Argument with Research: Out of 300 points; 30% of course grade
Oral Multimedia Presentation (Song Analysis): Out of 200 points; 20% of course grade
In-Class Essay 1: Out of 100 points total; 10% of course grade (5% first draft; 5% revised, final draft)
In-Class Essay 2: Out of 100 points total; 10% of course grade (5% first draft; 5% revised, final draft)
Informal Writing Assignments: Points-based, out of 50 total for semester; 5% of course grade.
Class Participation: Points-based, out of 50 total for semester; 5% of course grade.

Please note: Class Participation credit will be based mainly on specific course activities, including group work, peer review workshops, Canvas activities, quizzes, Learning Curve/Launchpad exercises, and Final Presentation. Your participation grade will also be determined based on your overall contribution to the course throughout the semester.

University policy F69-24: “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.” Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.
Classroom and General Protocols

Our classroom environment is everyone’s responsibility. You are required to be courteous to your classmates and to the instructor. People sometimes forget that the classroom is a professional setting. As a rule, electronic devices such as mobile phones and laptop computers need to be put away—unless a particular activity warrants their use, in which case the instructor will clearly indicate that. Repeated use of electronic devices unrelated to classroom activities will result in your being asked to leave a given class meeting. You should also avoid coming to class late: this impacts your learning and can also be distracting for everyone else.

If an emergency arises that requires your absence from class, or you are taken ill, you would do well to contact the instructor at your earliest opportunity by email. Giving less priority to your education than other time commitments does not constitute an emergency. (See policy on late work, under “Grading Policy.”)

Academic protocols for written work require that all quotations must be enclosed in quotation marks or, when more than three lines, put in an indented block. Full citation of the original author and source must also be included. For all papers, review The Everyday Writer (Writer’s Help 2.0, now integrated with the Canvas course pages) for help with quote integration, formatting, and citation. See the SJSU policy on Academic Integrity (http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/static/catalog/integrity.html) for help defining and avoiding plagiarism.

University Policies

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90–5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class.
Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

- It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
- In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.

- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Academic integrity

Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) to establish a record of their disability.

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed. See University Policy S14-7.

Student Technology Resources

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and in the Associated Students Lab on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library. A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include DV and HD digital camcorders; digital still cameras; video, slide and overhead projectors; DVD, CD, and audiotape players; sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.
SJSU Peer Connections

Peer Connections, a campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring, strives to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. You are encouraged to take advantage of their services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals.

In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. Workshops are offered on a wide variety of topics including preparing for the Writing Skills Test (WST), improving your learning and memory, alleviating procrastination, surviving your first semester at SJSU, and other related topics. A computer lab and study space are also available for student use in Room 600 of Student Services Center (SSC).
