GE A2 Course Description
Written Communication 1 cultivates an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing at the university. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. A passing grade of C or better signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

Course Description
English 1A is the first course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the personal voice and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. Students will be introduced to citing sources.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT, such as LLD 2.

ENGL 1A Course Outcomes (CLO)
Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:
• Clear and effective communication of meaning.
• An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).
• The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
• The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.
• Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources, including appropriate citation.
• Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.
• Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.
• Appropriate diction and tone.
• Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

GELO 1: Students shall demonstrate the ability to read actively and rhetorically.

GELO 2: Students shall demonstrate the ability to perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance.

GELO 3: Students shall articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals.

GELO 4: Students shall demonstrate the ability to integrate their ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres.

GELO 5: Students shall demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.

Classroom Protocol and Course Content

Diversity

SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. Thus, you will be reading articles from writers of different ethnicities, gender, socioeconomic class, and ideologies.

Reading

This is a writing course, and reading will be assigned daily. The reading is a crucial component of the class, as you must read effectively writing to become an effective writer. Reading must be completed by the beginning of each class session, and all discussions and assignments will be based in some way upon our reading material. It will be impossible to be a successful student in this course if you neglect to complete the daily reading.
Class Work, Participation, and Homework

You will complete daily work in class that goes toward your participation score. Presentations, group work, minor papers, and reading responses will also factor into this portion of the course grade. You will not be able to complete in-class assignments if you do not attend class daily, come on time, and stay for the full class period. Absences and/or tardiness will affect your PARTICIPATION grade. In addition, class participation does not simply mean that you are physically present in class. You must contribute to class discussions, listen to your peers, take notes as necessary, have the required class materials, and come to class with all assignments completed.

University policy F69-24, “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Turn off cell phones or put them on silent mode during the class period; you will lose all participation points for the day if I see your cell phone (this especially includes text messaging—I do see you!). This behavior is both rude and unprofessional. Laptop computers and tablets are also forbidden during class time unless you have a documented need for a computer as a note-taking tool.

Canvas & Hardcopy Submissions

We will be using SJSU’s Canvas system for electronic submissions of major writing assignments. You will also be required to submit hard copies of your major writing assignments. I do not print out essays for students. If you cannot make it to class, I will accept an email submission as evidence of the assignment’s completion; however, you are still responsible for turning in a hardcopy at the next class meeting you attend. I respond to all email submissions. If you do not get a reply from me within 12hrs, you must assume I did not receive it. Lost email submissions are not valid excuses for late or missing assignments. You will still be held responsible.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, students are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Essays

You will complete a total of eight essays for this class: four in-class essays, and four out-of-class essays, for a total of 8000 required words, 4000 of which must be in revised form. Each of the three out-of-class essays must go through at least one revision. This means that you will be turning in extensive drafts of the first three out-of-class essays. Each draft needs to be at least 1000 words, so please treat these drafts like you would a final copy.

Quizzes

There will be several announced quizzes as noted on the class schedule. I also reserve the right to give pop quizzes, which will test your completion and comprehension of the required reading assignments.

Grammar Presentations

You will be assigned groups for grammar presentations in the early part of the semester. Each group will conduct a 5-10 minute lesson on a grammar topic, including both instructional material and a quiz. Groups can select grammar topics from a list I will provide in the third week of class. (GELO 4)

Final Portfolio Essay

The final portfolio essay will be an extension and revision of your final in-class essay. For this assignment you will be expected to critically analyze and reflect upon yourself and your growth as a writer throughout the semester.

Grading Breakdown and Policies

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area A3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

This course must be passed with a C or better as a CSU graduation requirement.
