Canvas Course Pages and MySJSU Messaging

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, and assignment instructions can be found on the Canvas learning management system course website. We will also use Canvas for various discussions and for assignment submissions. Important announcements and additional materials will also be posted on Canvas and distributed via email. You are responsible for regularly checking the Canvas course pages and your email account associated with the MySJSU messaging system.

ENGL 1A Course Description

ENGL 1A is an introductory writing course that will help you understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, you will learn to think clearly and write effectively as you give form and coherence to complex ideas. You will explore writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

ENGL 1A Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to

• read actively and rhetorically;
• perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
• articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
• integrate your ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
• demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.
ENGL 1A Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. You will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct your own arguments on complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing: Writing assignments will give you repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 8000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Because in-class writing is valued and you should be able to perform well in timed writing situations, at least one essay will be written in class. In addition, ENGL 1A classes require multiple out-of-class essays.

Reading: In addition to being an intensive writing course, ENGL 1A is also a reading course. Reading is a crucial component of the class, as one must read effective writing to become an effective writer. During the semester, you will read a variety of rhetorical and professional works on the art and craft of persuasive language.

Multimodal: You will be presenting your arguments orally to class both as an individual and as part of a group.

ENGL 1A Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, you are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Final Assignment

Instead of a final exam, you will write a critical reflection (Paper 4) at the end of the class. Think of it as a scientific study of your progress as a writer over the next four months. Remember, writing is a process. Collecting your work and then reflecting on that work is part of the process. The final assignment is designed to get you thinking about your specific challenges, your strategies for improvement, your successes and failures, and your goals for the future. Every writer, no matter how accomplished, has room for improvement. This assignment is your culminating experience. This course does not have a final exam. However, we will meet on the final exam date for a final, culminating experience, which will include student final presentations.

Required Texts

*SJSU Campus Handbook: The Everyday Writer by Andrea Lunsford [Indicated as EW in course schedule]. You can access this textbook through Canvas under “Writer’s Help 2.0”; you will not need a separate print copy, although you are welcome to obtain one if you wish.

E-Book or Digital Rental: You are strongly encouraged to purchase an e-book or digital rental of this textbook, because you will mainly be using it on your own (rather than using it during class meetings). You can purchase the e-text directly through the publisher here or through VitalSource here.

E-Book or Digital Rental: While you will be better off with a print copy of this book, because we will be using it a lot during our class meetings, you are still welcome to go digital if you wish. You can purchase the e-book through the publisher here (http://books.wwnorton.com/books/webad.aspx?id=4294975258) or purchase a digital rental through VitalSource here (https://www.vitalsource.com/referral?term=9780393923124)

All textbooks can be purchased at the Spartan Bookstore and, of course, through various online retailers. Be sure that any text you buy has the correct ISBN (as indicated in the listings above). Make sure you get the correct edition of each book, and be sure you buy or rent the correct version of the Norton Field Guide to Writing, in particular (don’t buy/rent one of the larger versions with tons of extra readings or an extensive writing handbook!)

Required Web/Internet Readings and Online Resources:

Elizabeth (No last name given), “This I Believe” http://thisibelieve.org/essay/17709/

You can access the SJSU Library online at http://library.sjsu.edu/

Other Required Materials:

You will need to bring paper (I recommend a notebook with detachable pages) plus a supply of blue or black ink pens to class each day. You will need to bring “blue books” or “green books” (paper exam booklets) for the in-class Writing Sample assignment at our second class meeting and for all subsequent in-class essays. I strongly recommend a decent-sized folder for storing all your work during the semester: you will need to refer to previous assignments when writing your final reflection essay at the end of the course.

Recommended Materials:

You will also find a college-level English dictionary useful. You will have the option to use a print (paper) English dictionary during in-class exams.

Grading Policy

Grades given on assignments are final: they are not subject to debate or revision. That said, I will always be happy to review your work with you and explain the grade your assignment has earned—and, more important, discuss ways you can improve your work on future assignments.

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C- or better to satisfy CORE GE Area A2. Please review the percentage ranges below for each grade you can earn in the course, including plus/minus grades. Please note: No grades will be rounded up at the end of the semester; to earn a particular grade, your final percentage in the class must fall within the specified range. (Example: 70.1% earns you a C-; 69.9% earns you a D+)
Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper’s effectiveness, which is broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and expression. In first-year writing courses, the grading scale is generally based on the following criteria and percentages:

- A [90-92=A-, 93-96=A, 97-100=A+] = Excellent: An “A” essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.

- B [80-82=B-, 83-86=B, 87-89=B+] = Above Average: A “B” essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.

- C [70-72=C-, 73-76=C, 77-79=C+] = Average: A “C” essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.

- D [60-62=D-, 63-66=D, 67-69=D+] = Below Average: A “D” essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.

- F [59 or less] Failure: An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

Canvas Submission (Turnitin.com) Requirement and Late Penalties

Rough drafts and final drafts of formal written assignments will be reviewed on Turnitin.com, as will most of our Informal Writing (IW) assignments, for potential plagiarism. To receive any credit on each of these assignments, you must upload an electronic copy to Canvas (no separate Turnitin.com submission is required).

If an assignment is not submitted, on time, on the day it is due, 10% of the possible points (one full letter grade) will be automatically deducted from any score the essay earns. If more than a week has passed after a due date and the assignment has not been submitted, it will not be accepted without prior instructor approval.

The only way to avoid late penalties is to contact the instructor in writing before the due date to explain your particular situation and to request a possible extension. Please note that any extension will be given at the instructor’s sole discretion. Similarly, if you miss an in-class essay exam, any make-up exam will be offered at the instructor’s sole discretion: depending on the circumstances, a grade penalty might also apply.

There is one exception to these stated penalties and procedures. Your final essay, Paper 4 (Reflective Analysis Essay), will be subject to special conditions due to the limited time frame at the end of the semester. These will be clearly specified and explained when the essay is assigned.

Please note: Any assignment not turned in or not accepted—for whatever reason—will receive a zero, resulting in 0% or No Credit on that assignment. This applies to formal written assignments (first and final drafts), in-class essays, presentations, informal writings, quizzes, and class activities (including Canvas-based activities).

Course Grade Calculation Overview

Your final course grade will be determined based on a combination of formal written assignments, in-class essay exams, informal writing assignments, and class participation. Your letter grade will be based on your total points earned out of a possible 1,000 points for the semester and your resulting overall percentage (see grading scale, above). Some specifics on each graded task are available in the Assignments table (Table 1) and in the Course Schedule table (Table 2). Full details on each will be provided on the Canvas course pages or during particular class meetings (in-class activities), and you will also receive assignment sheets (print copies) in class for the major assignments (Paper 1, Paper 2, Paper 3, and Paper 4) and for the in-class essays (Writing Sample, In-Class Essay Exam 1, and In-Class Essay Exam 2).

Please note: Class Participation credit will mainly be based on specific course activities, including the initial Writing Sample, group work, Canvas activities (reading quizzes, discussions, etc.), Learning Curve exercises, and Final Presentation. Your participation grade will also be determined based on your overall contribution to the course throughout the semester. Please also note that while attendance itself is not part of the grading criteria, you will have a difficult time earning participation credit if you are not present during class meetings.

University policy F69-24: “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See [University Policy F13-1](http://www.sjsu.edu senate/docs/F13-1.pdf) for more details.

Classroom and General Protocols

Our classroom environment is everyone’s responsibility. You are required to be courteous to your classmates and to the instructor. People sometimes forget that the classroom is a professional setting. As a rule, electronic devices such as mobile phones and laptop computers need to be put away—unless a particular activity warrants their use, in which case the instructor will clearly indicate that. Repeated use of electronic devices unrelated to classroom activities will result in your being asked to leave a given class meeting. You should also avoid coming to class late: this impacts your learning and can also be distracting for everyone else.

If an emergency arises that requires your absence from class, or you are taken ill, you would do well to contact the instructor at your earliest opportunity by email. Giving less priority to your education than other time commitments does not constitute an emergency. (See policy on late work, under “Grading Policy.”)

Academic protocols for written work require that all quotations must be enclosed in quotation marks or, when more than three lines, put in an indented block. Full citation of the original author and source must also be included. For all papers, review The Everyday Writer (Writer’s Help 2.0, now integrated with the Canvas course pages) for help with quote integration, formatting, and citation. See the SJSU policy on Academic Integrity (http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/static/catalog/integrity.html) for help defining and avoiding plagiarism.

University Policies

University Policies: the link below contains university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc.

Please visit the Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Program’s Syllabus Information web page for full information on current university policies that pertain to this course and to the university community generally.
This schedule is subject to change with reasonable notice given in class, on Canvas, and/or via email. Expect, for example, additional readings in The Everyday Writer [EW] (available online, through Canvas, as part of Writer’s Help 2.0) and other activities (such as Learning Curve exercises and Reading Quizzes) to be assigned. Further topics and tasks for Informal Writings [IW] will also be announced as the semester progresses. Key to other abbreviations: Norton Sampler [NS] and Norton Field Guide [NFG].
