Course Description
Welcome to English 100WB, a participatory course that offers a practical approach to business communication, emphasizing situations that require both oral and written communication. Assignments enable students to practice and apply both practical and theoretical aspects organizational communication.

Students will develop advanced proficiency in college-level writing and appropriate contemporary research strategies and methodologies to communicate effectively to both specialized and general audiences. This course reinforces and advances the abilities developed in Written Communication I (A2) and Critical Thinking and Writing (A3) courses, and broadens and deepens these to include mastery of the discourse peculiar to business communications.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives
Course Goals for Area Z (CLO)

Diversity. Issues of diversity shall be incorporated in an appropriate manner.

Writing. Written assignments should include both in-class and out-of-class writing, giving students practice and feedback throughout the semester. A single final term paper would not satisfy the requirement. Assignments will total a minimum of 8000 words assigned throughout the semester, providing frequent practice and feedback for improving application skills. Course syllabi must reflect assignments that meet the 8000-word minimum.

Reading. Readings used in the course should be models of excellence.

Discipline. Written Communication II courses are discipline specific. All courses will use language and forms of writing appropriate to the discipline.
Pedagogical Approach

• Courses shall focus on issues or present perspectives from different academic disciplines.
• Courses shall require students to apply basic skills (reading, writing, speaking, critical thinking, research, and mathematics) and to utilize knowledge gained in Core General Education courses.

Active Learning

• Each course shall provide for active student participation. The course may not be exclusively lecture format.
• Assignments must utilize library research and oral and written communication skills.
• Courses should promote reflective processes and critical analysis.

Primary sources. Course materials (readings, research) must include primary sources appropriate to the discipline (e.g. scholarly journal articles, original artwork)

Student Learning Objectives for GE Area Z (GELO)

Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Students shall be able to:
1. produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in:
   • language use
   • grammar
   • clarity of expression
2. explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse
3. organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences
4. organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards
5. locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing

Required Texts/Materials

Business and Professional Writing: A Basic Guide for Americans, by Paul MacRae

Course Reader (purchase at Maple Press)

SJSU Campus Handbook: The Everyday Writer by Andrea Lunsford – The electronic version of this text is free for all SJSU students on Canvas under Writer’s Help.
Other Equipment / Material requirements

Access to Internet, email, and printer
Stapler
Course dedicated notebook or journal
Course folder with pockets

Course Format

This course will employ interactive lecture/discussion activities, in-class individual and group simulation activities, team and individual oral presentations, critical analysis of readings, analysis and editing of assignments, and workshops. Students will study and practice several communication tools that can improve the effectiveness of both their written and oral communication. We will analyze a number of samples, write for a variety of audiences, and explore a range of formats as we craft resumes, reports, blog posts, proposals, podcast scripts, letters, emails, tweets, and other business messages. Student success in this class requires coming to class on time and prepared for each session.

Document Format

Assignments such as blogs, resumes, reports, letters, and emails, will follow standard business writing format (as explained during lecture, posted on Canvas, and printed in Appendix A of your textbook). Format other assignments in MLA style. (See Purdue OWL or Writer’s Help for MLA style.)

Estimation of Per-Unit Student Workload

SJSU classes are designed such that to be successful, students are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Note: This means devoting minimum of 9 hours per week, per class. To successfully complete English 100WB, students should plan on approximately six hours of dedicated homework time each week. Students will be graded based on performance on the following assignments:

Grading Procedure
The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the official SJSU Catalog (“The Grading System”). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.
In English Department courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of the ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.
The grading for this course is A – F.

Grades will be assigned according to the following rubric:
A: Message is clear, i.e. writing demonstrates clear understanding and appropriate response to the assignment. Paragraphs are well organized and sentences show syntactic complexity and precise word choice. Tone is professional and appropriate. The piece is free of grammatical errors, superfluous language, and redundancy.

B: Message is clear – no details are missing. Tone is appropriate to the message. Paragraphs may be slightly choppy. Language is professional but not as sophisticated or as varied as the language in an A paper. Grammatical errors and redundancy are minimal. Sentences may need tightening.

C: Message is weak but exists. Language and/or ideas may be repetitive and not always suited to professional discourse. Writing is clear but lacks energy and variety. Paragraphs likely have organizational issues. Sentences lack variety. Grammar needs work but does not distract the reader from the message.

D: Message is severely weakened by grammatical or syntactical errors that distract the reader and cause ‘noise’ or ‘clutter.’ Details may be missing and paragraphs may need fixing. Language is not rhetorically sophisticated and does not demonstrate an understanding of professional discourse. Syntax is not varied.

F: Errors in grammar or word choice make the piece very difficult to understand.

Late Work
Late work will not be accepted except in cases of documented illness or emergency. If you will be absent, you may ask a classmate to turn in your assignment either during class, or at my office (FOB219). All assignments must be turned in on Canvas by due date. Exceptions include pass coupons at the end of the this syllabus.

Extra Credit
Extra credit is offered for your first visit to the writing center if it is prior to the due date of your Executive Brief and may also be offered for revisions on select assignments, or by your instructor for exemplary effort, finished product, or contribution to the class.
Classroom Protocol
Please arrive prepared and on time for every session with your journal and books ready for class activities and discussion, your assignments read, and hard copies stapled and ready to turn in. Sessions may begin with quizzes, group assignments, or short assignments that cannot be made up if you are late or absent.

- Please feel free to ask questions about anything that is not clear to you. If I don’t have an answer, I will find one and get back to you.
- Students are encouraged to share insights and opinions during class discussions. Respect for each other is key here.
- If you miss a class, please contact a classmate for notes, reading assignments, and handouts. Also, remember to ask if any changes have been made to the assignment calendar.
- I strongly encourage you to take notes in this class. Much of what you will learn will come from lectures, class discussions, and in-class exercises.
- Computers are to be used for note taking only — absolutely no social media or Internet surfing in this class unless required for a specific in-class assignment.
- Cell phones are to be turned off and put away unless we are using them for an assignment.
- Sleeping is not allowed in class. Please get enough sleep so you are able to participate fully.
- Recording, filming, or photographing any parts of lectures or course material requires my permission. See rules on technology use: http://www.sjsu.edu/english/comp/policy/index.html.

Attendance and Participation
University policy F69-24, “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.” Note: A large portion of student learning occurs in class from lectures, discussions, and exercises. In-class assignments and participation points cannot be made up.

Academic Integrity
Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

Resources
Library Liaison
Your reference librarian for 100WB is christa.bailey@sjsu.edu. Her phone number is 408-808-2422. If Ms. Bailey is not available when you need assistance, use the Ask A Librarian feature (located at http://library.sjsu.edu/ask-librarian-0) to chat with an on-call reference librarian even when the library is closed. For immediate assistance with any research related question, call 1-408-808-2100 during business hours.
Student Technology Resources
Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library. A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include digital and VHS camcorders, VHS and Beta video players, 16 mm, slide, overhead, DVD, CD, and audiotape players, sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

SJSU Writing Center
The SJSU Writing Center is located in Clark Hall, Suite 126. All Writing Specialists have gone through a rigorous hiring process, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. In addition to one-on-one tutoring services, the Writing Center also offers workshops every semester on a variety of writing topics. To make an appointment or to refer to the numerous online resources offered through the Writing Center, visit the Writing Center website: http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter. For additional resources and updated information, follow the Writing Center on Twitter and become a fan of the SJSU Writing Center on Facebook.

SJSU Peer Connections
Peer Connections, a campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring, strives to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. You are encouraged to take advantage of their services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals.

In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. Workshops are offered on a wide variety of topics including preparing for the Writing Skills Test (WST), improving your learning and memory, alleviating procrastination, surviving your first semester at SJSU, and other related topics. A computer lab and study spaces are also available for student use in Room 600 of Student Services Center (SSC).

Peer Connections is located in three locations: SSC, Room 600 (10th Street Garage on the corner of 10th and San Fernando Street), at the 1st floor entrance of Clark Hall, and in the Living Learning Center (LLC) in Campus Village Housing Building B. Visit Peer Connections website at http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu for more information.

Below, please write down the names, email addresses, and phone numbers of three classmate contacts. Please connect with one or more if you miss a class.

This pass may not be used for rough or final drafts of resume, cover letter, executive brief, executive brief research questions, or executive brief presentation, podcast script or presentation, mock interview worksheets or questions, final report or outline for formal report, or reflective essay. The reason is that the timely completion of these assignments is necessary for time-restricted peer reviews, group work, library visit, job fair, presentations, or grades due at the end of the semester.

Late Pass LearningCurve – Exception to the “No Late Work Rule”

This pass entitles you to complete one group of LearningCurve topics up to one week late. Please submit coupon hard copy in class, and write “coupon” in the comment section when you submit your LearningCurve assignment on Canvas. Note: Topics must be both assigned on same date. Also, if there is a quiz before you do these topics, you will still be responsible for all grammar/punctuation questions.

Revise an Assignment for a Passing Grade

This pass entitles you to revise one assignment on which you received a grade lower than a C (below 73%) for a passing grade. The revision must be a substantial rewrite that goes beyond correcting errors that were corrected by me. You must rewrite all areas of concern and make sure that your paper is virtually free of grammar and punctuation errors. Assignment must be revised and submitted prior to November 17, 2016.
