COURSE DESCRIPTION:
English 100W is required of all majors in the Department of English & Comparative Literature. Students in the class will usually be majors. This is an intensive reading and writing course focusing on poetry (the first half of the course) and drama and fiction (the second half of the course). We will read and discuss 19 poems written by six poets, two plays, a novel, and six short stories from a collection of stories.
Class discussion is an essential element of this class. All students are strongly couraged to contribute. The three required essays—a rough draft and final draft of each—are due on dates listed in the Course Schedule. These essays will emphasize close reading and analysis. We will also discuss and practice research techniques necessary to the study of literature.

COURSE GOALS AND STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES
FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH AND COMPARATIVE LITERATURE, STUDENTS WILL DEMONSTRATE THE ABILITY TO:
1. Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature.
2. Show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British, American, and/or World Literature.
3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, context, and nature of the subject.
Develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively.

Demonstrate the ability to articulate relations among culture, history, & texts.

FOR GENERAL EDUCATION AREA Z, WRITTEN COMMUNICATION II:
Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency.
Students shall be able to:

1. Produce discipline-specific written essays that demonstrate upper-division proficiency in language use, grammar, and clarity of expression.
2. Explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse.
3. Organize and develop essays for both professional and general audiences.
4. Organize and develop essays according to appropriate editorial and citation standards.
5. Locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose and to communicate that purpose in writing.

Further, issues of diversity shall be incorporated in an appropriate manner.

Assignments will total a minimum of 8000 words assigned throughout the semester.
Completing Area Z with a grade of C or better is a graduation requirement.

COURSE SCHEDULE [NOTE: WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS AND OTHER ASPECTS OF CLASS WORK WILL BE DISCUSSED IN DETAIL DURING THE SEMESTER]

POETRY READINGS ARE FROM THE POETRY FOUNDATION WEBSITE. EACH STUDENT MUST MAKE A HAND-WRITTEN COPY OF EACH POEM AND BRING THESE COPIES TO CLASS ON THE DAY THE POEM/POEMS ARE DISCUSSED.
