COURSE DESCRIPTION:
In this class you will read, discuss, and write about five major works of California detective fiction written between 1929 and the early 20th century. The first four books are novels; the fifth is a collection of related short stories. We will also discuss the authors and the historical and cultural contexts of these works of fiction.

Though detective fiction is often called “popular” literature, all five of the writers we’ll study are masters of craft, thereby elevating their work.

COURSE GOALS AND STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH & COMPARATIVE LITERATURE STUDENTS WILL DEMONSTRATE THE ABILITY TO:
1. Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature.
2. Show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches.
3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, context, and nature of the subject.
4. Articulate relations among culture, history, and texts.

FOR GENERAL EDUCATION AREA C2 (LETTERS) STUDENTS SHALL BE ABLE TO:
1. Recognize how significant works illuminate enduring human concerns.
2. Respond to such works by writing both research-based critical analyses and personal responses.
3. Write clearly and effectively.

In addition, students will examine significant works of the human intellect and imagination; understand the historical and cultural contexts in which these works were created; and recognize the accomplishments of and issues related to women and diverse cultures reflected in these works, thus incorporating issues of diversity. EVERY DEPARTMENT AND GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING OBJECTIVE IS INCORPORATED INTO EVERY READING AND WRITING ASSIGNMENT.
