Course Description

This course covers the diversity of human adaptation, cultural evolution, cultural change and environmental modification among indigenous peoples in Africa, Asia, Oceania, and the Americas. The emphasis is on non-Western conservation practices.

Classroom Protocol

ALL ELECTRONIC DEVICES (CELL PHONES, LAPTOPS, TABLETS) MUST BE TURNED OFF AND PUT AWAY OUT OF SIGHT DURING CLASS TIMES. The first infraction will prompt a formal warning by the instructor. The second infraction will be promptly reported to the Office of Student Conduct with a recommendation that the student be immediately expelled from the course. Students should be aware that according to Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, "Standards for Student Conduct," grounds for student discipline includes: "Participating in an activity that substantially and materially disrupts the normal operations of the University," {Section 41301(b)(4)} which could include use of electronic devices in classroom settings.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. THERE WILL BE NO MAKEUP EXAMS. Exceptions to this rule will only be made if official documents can be presented at least 24 hours in advance showing evidence of illness, death in family, or legal duties.

Some course materials will be distributed in class sessions and others will be sent to students via the email address which appears in the course roster. This course makes use of the Canvas learning management system and you are responsible for all assignments and changes to them.
Credit Hours

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of forty-five hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

University Policies

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90–5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.
