

Welcome to Online EDSE 192A (Section 80 and Section 81 for Spring 2011):
Including and Supporting Students with Special Needs in General Education Classrooms

There is NO mandatory campus meeting for these two online classes. Instead, you will complete a set of Orientation Assignments available in the course web site within Desire2Learn (D2L) in addition to the regularly scheduled online seminars. Once you logged in to SJSU's Learning Management System (LMS) <https://sjsu.desire2learn.com/>, you will find syllabus, schedule, and all other related online EDSE192A course assignments. To learn more about SJSU's LMS, D2L, please visit:

<http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/students/>. Here is a direct link to "Getting Started with D2L: Quick Start Guide V.9.0"

If you need more help about using D2L, please visit Peer Mentor Center at the Clark Hall in person. This center is also located right next to the University Help Desk (924-2377), so students can meet with a tech support staff to address the tech issues regarding D2L.

Required Textbooks & Online Resources:

We worked with Pearson Publisher to customize specifically packaged textbook materials with discount for students enrolled in EDSE 192A at San Jose State University. These are:

- Friend, M. and Bursuck, W. D. (2009). Including students with special needs: A practical guide for classroom teachers (5th edition). Columbus, OH: Pearson.
- Online Resources associated with each chapter provided by Pearson's MyEducationLab: <http://www.myeducationlab.com>. [Your access code to the online resources is included with your new 2009 edition of Friend and Bursuck's textbook. Please visit this site for more information.]
- Murphy, D. (2005). Introductory Special Education: Inclusion, Student Learning Guide. This is a VideoWorkshop with CD-ROM. Boston: Allyn & Bacon. (It is a part of the textbook packet.)
