

SANTA CLARA COUNTY
PROBATION DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION

MISSION AND GOALS STATEMENT

The Mission of the Santa Clara County Probation Department, as an integral part of the Criminal Justice System, is to PROTECT THE COMMUNITY.

The Mission of the Department will be accomplished by providing investigation, supervision, and custodial care of adults and juveniles referred for probation services.

The Mission to Protect extends to abused and neglected children, clients and victims of crime.

In pursuit of the Mission, the Department will maintain standards of professional excellence.

Encompassed in Community Protection are the following goals whereby the Department will:

Hold offenders responsible to the community and to themselves through personal accountability and RESTITUTION as part of any sanction.

Assess an individual's potential RISK to the community through standardized criteria which will guide probation decisions. The Department will employ risk assessment to aid in the reduction of further criminal activity and victimization;

Work aggressively with Justice Agencies and community organizations to develop and support CRIME PREVENTION Programs.

Provide PROGRAMS for clients both in and out of custody with the goal that the individual will accept social responsibilities as he/she is reintegrated into the community. Such programs will include, but not be limited to: work, recreation, education, vocational training and counseling.

Provide support to the Courts and perform all MANDATED probation functions, in accord with standards and constitutional requirements;

Utilize CUSTODIAL CARE as a limited resource for those persons for whom no other appropriate or less-restrictive alternative exists. Conditions of confinement will be constitutional, safe, secure and humane in compliance with applicable State and Local Law.

Be an advocate for the needs of VICTIMS.

Provide avenues for PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT and participation in the pursuit of the Department's overall Mission.
