<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS vii

ONE  INTRODUCTION  1
    Holistic Healers: An Ethnography  1
    The Ethnographic Focus: The Sequence of a Social Movement  8

TWO  HOLISTIC HEALTH PRACTITIONERS  15
    Overview of Holistic Health  16
    Roles and Community Organization  25

THREE  HOLISTIC HEALTH THERAPIES  30
    Asian Based Therapies  34
    Synthetic Ayurvedic Practices  42
    Euro-American Naturalistic Medical Systems  47
    Healing with Mind and Spirit  57

FOUR  THE ROOTS OF HOLISTIC HEALTH  63
    Not from the Head of Zeus  66
    The Links are Forged  67
    The Empiricist/Rationalist Debate  73
    Heresies, Spiritual and Medical  75
    The Veiled Tradition  78
    Masons, Magnetism, Spirits and Spas  84
    Colonialism's Unacknowledged Legacy  92
    The Protean Practitioner  96

FIVE  THE GOALS OF HOLISTIC HEALTH  97
    The Cybernetic Social Movement  100
    The Social Movement Revisited  107
    Ideology and Goals  118
    Institutions and Heresies: A Comparative Example from Christianity  122
SIX  BECOMING A HEALER  127
Recruiting the Urban Shaman  128
Learners, Doers, Teachers  131
The Healing Mind  138
Altered States  141
Embodying the Movement  145

SEVEN  SHAMAN OR PROFESSIONAL?  147
New Career or Spurious Professional?  148
Anticipated Health Care Scenarios  152
The Survival of Holistic Health  158

REFERENCES CITED  163

INDEX  183