Course Description
These seven seminars present topics in English Education for middle and high school English teachers. The seminars provide a framework for the intensive experience in supervised student teaching, student teaching under contract, or intern teaching. Additionally, and perhaps most importantly, they offer support for completion of the PACT Portfolio (Performance Assessment for CA Teachers).

Traditional student teachers, for 184YZ, will work with one or two mentor teachers at the middle or high school level and with a university supervisor, assuming full responsibility for two classes involving two preparations.
Teacher candidates should begin their duties quickly. The exact schedule for taking over the classes will be worked out with the mentor teacher(s). Generally, student teachers observe for one week before taking full responsibility for the first class, and by the end of the second week they assume full responsibility for the second class. As soon as possible, student teachers must be completely responsible for creating unit and daily lesson plans, handling classroom procedures, managing classroom behavior issues, assessing student work, and completing grading documents. At the earliest possible time, students should recognize their student teacher as the teacher in charge. However, teacher candidates need the continued guidance of their mentor teachers and should debrief with mentor teachers regularly to discuss observations and concerns.

Student teachers must be on campus one prep period for each class taught (normally a total of four periods per day). They will generally be teaching one stand-alone ELD class or one mixed-ability class which includes ELLs as part of this assignment. Additionally, the traditional student teacher must also complete two weeks of full day schedules as part of his/her Phase II/III assignment—this can be co-teaching or some variation of a full day’s schedule. To accommodate this requirement, student teachers & mentor teachers should start early in the semester to plan when and how the teacher candidates will assume responsibility for the additional classes for this two-week period.

Course Requirements:

1. Attend and participate in each of the seven seminar meetings. It would be helpful for you to have a flash drive for handouts and teaching materials provided throughout the course.

2. Read and follow the requirements delineated in the Student Teacher Handbook – especially p.3 and pp. 8-20; please access the Handbook at the following link: http://www.sjsu.edu/secondary/students/student_teaching/2015-2016%20Student%20Teaching%20Handbook.pdf

I. Context for Learning Task – DUE September 17

1. Write a commentary of 3-5 single-spaced pages (including prompts) that addresses the following prompts. You can address each prompt separately, through a holistic essay, or a combination of both, as long as all prompts are addressed. (If you’re responding via an electronic platform, your 3 to 5 pages may appear as text boxes for individual questions.) Briefly describe the following:
   a. Type of school/program in which you teach, (e.g., middle/ high school, themed school or program)
   b. Kind of class you are teaching (e.g., ninth grade English – untracked, American Literature – College Prep) and the organization of the subject in the school (e.g., departmentalized, interdisciplinary teams)
   c. Degree of ability grouping or tracking, if any

2. Describe your specific class with respect to the features listed below. Focus on key factors that influence your planning and teaching. Be sure to describe what your students can do as well as what they are still learning to do:
   a. Academic development: Consider prior student knowledge, key skills, developmental levels, and other special educational needs. (TPE 8)
   b. Language development: Consider aspects of language proficiency in relation to the oral and written English required to participate in classroom learning and assessment tasks. Describe the range in vocabulary and levels of complexity of language use within your entire class. When describing the proficiency of your English learners, describe what your English learners can and cannot yet do in relation to the language demands of tasks in the learning segment. (TPEs 7, 8)

c. Social development: Consider factors such as the students’ ability and experience in expressing themselves in constructive ways, negotiating and solving problems, and getting along with others. (TPE 8)

d. Family and community contexts: Consider key factors such as cultural context, knowledge acquired outside of school, socio-economic background, access to technology, and home/community resources.

3. Describe any district, school, or resident teacher requirements or expectation that might impact your planning or delivery of instruction, such as required curricula, pacing, use of specific instructional strategies, or standardized tests.

4. Complete the Context for Learning Form from p. 5 of your PACT Handbook (sent to you electronically by Dr. Warner and available online at http://www.sjsu.edu/education/pact/forms_rubrics/index.htm or by googling PACT Teaching Event and clicking on “Teaching Event Handbooks”)

Consider students’ progress and success, reasons success was/was not achieved as you had anticipated, strategies you used, and ways you may alter your methodologies in the coming week (the Deep Reflection should be no longer than a page.)

NB: For your PACT Teaching Event in which you complete daily reflections, the weekly goals and reflection will not be required.

5. Maintain a 3-ring binder/portfolio of all materials you have used/created during the semester for your two classes. Your portfolio should include
   a) unit plans

The following requirements are to be fulfilled in your school setting

6. Meet with your mentor teacher(s) or on-site evaluator(s) in your assigned school as soon as your placement has been confirmed. Discuss the school program and calendar. Ask if it is possible to be included in any departmental or school faculty orientations or meetings.

7. Observe your mentor teachers’/coaches’ classes (if possible). Take notes during this time and familiarize yourself with classroom procedures and course content. Special attention should be given to classroom management skills: taking roll, learning names of students, policies for absences and tardies, handling referrals, and addressing deadlines for assignments, etc.

8. At the beginning of the semester, give your university supervisor your vacation/holiday and bell schedule, including any alternate or special school day dates. Include a map of the campus marked with the location(s) of your classes.
9. Dress appropriately for your work environment. You are a professional educator on your campus while you are student teaching, and you want to project that persona.

10. Observe time schedules for classes, meetings, and other conferences that are part of your workload.

Grading: Student teachers, interns, and contract teachers are graded in ENED 365 and 184Y/Z with CR (Credit) or NC (No Credit). Candidates must fulfill all course requirements and must also provide evidence of good teaching and potential for continued growth to meet the criteria for the grade of “CR.”

Your university supervisor and your mentor teacher(s) or on-site evaluator will fill out Formative Evaluations by Friday, October 16. They should discuss the evaluation with you and advise you about areas of improvement needed in order to receive credit for the course. You should have ample opportunity to improve in those areas before the end of the semester. Formative Evaluations from the university supervisor and mentor teacher(s) or on-site evaluator must be on file in the English Credential Office.

By Wednesday, December 16, your university supervisor and your mentor teacher or on-site evaluator(s) will again submit written evaluations of your performance, using the Summative Evaluation Form. You need to sign the evaluations indicating you have seen and discussed the evaluation with your mentor teacher/on-site evaluator and university supervisor. You are required to teach your classes until the end of the semester of the school in which you are student teaching. Credit will not be assigned if you do not complete the term at the school to which you have been assigned.

Evaluations: University supervisors and mentor teachers will submit
- a. Formative Evaluations no later than Friday, October 16.
- b. Summative Evaluations no later than Wednesday, December 16.

Classroom Protocol

Please remember to come on time for each Seminar. This is your final semester of coursework that does need to be successfully completed so you can get your preliminary credential.

If you bring laptops and/or iPhones, they need to be for classwork only. Just as with the students in your classroom, we need you to be fully participative.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, etc. Information on add/drops are available at http://info.sjsu.edu/webdbgen/narr/soc-fall/rec-298.html. Information about late drop is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/sac/advising/latedrops/policy/. If you have any issues related to late adds/drops, you should first contact Dr. Ferdie Rivera, Department Chair or Dr. Mary Warner, Interim Coordinator of the Single Subject Credential Program. If you begin Phase II/III and drop it, or if your university supervisor and/or your school-based supervisor determine that you are not teaching at a credit worthy level, you will be required to wait a semester before taking Phase II/III again.
