

LEGAL MOVIE ANALYSIS PAPER

Assignment: Watch one of the movies listed below or another approved by the instructor, and critically analyze the movie. The analysis should include a brief summary of the court related portions of the movie, and a comparison of the trial, evidence, or procedures with actual California requirements for due process as you have learned them in the course of your education or through personal experience. Your paper is not just a sketch of the movie – I’ve seen the movie – the purpose of the exercise is to compare the movie version of court proceeding with real life proceedings as you will learn them. You should watch the movie early in the semester and then again after you have become familiar with the processes. The paper should be at least four pages long, not including the title page, and it should be double spaced, with one inch margins. Many of the movies listed below are available at the San Jose Library.
