Catalog Description

Humanities 2B offers an integrated, interdisciplinary introduction to ideas, events and arts of Western and world culture that have influenced people and led to the creation of modernism and contemporary globalism. We look at the development of Western culture from a variety of perspectives. Our aim is to develop an understanding of the significant values, institutions and attitudes that have contributed to producing the complex global culture we share today. During 2B, we consider responses to imperialism and nationalism; the rise of the United States, and eventually, California; creative transformations in art, literature and music; and the devastations of global wars.

Course Goals

This course will aim to accomplish the following: Each student will have the opportunity to consider some of the significant ideas and other creations of humankind. Students will be able to become familiar with the milieu that yielded these important works. Students will be able to recognize the contributions and accomplishments of women and diverse cultural and religious groups in the movement of civilizations. Also, an aesthetic and poetic awareness regarding the many means of communication will be cultivated. Students will be encouraged to express their understanding, experiences and views in not only written discourse but also in by means of public speaking and, of course, in group discussions.

GE Learning Objectives:

Students who successfully complete the four-semester sequence of Humanities Honors will find that they have satisfied the following objectives:

LO1 Area A1: Oral Communication courses should cultivate an understanding of the social, psychological, political and practical significance of communication, with special emphasis on the roles of public communication in a free society.

LO2 Area A2: Written communication 1A courses should cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing at the university.

LO3 Area A3: Critical thinking courses should help students learn to recognize, analyze, evaluate, and produce reasoning.

LO4 Areas C1-2-2 (9 units): Arts and Letters courses should give students knowledge and understanding of significant works of the human intellect and imagination. Courses should enable students to participate in social and cultural communities associated with artistic and literary endeavors, enriching their personal and professional lives.

LO5 Area D2: Courses in this area will enable students to compare and contrast two or more ethnic groups, cultures, regions, nations, or social systems.

LO6 Area D3: Social Issues courses will enable students to apply multidisciplinary material to a topic relevant to policy and social action at the local, national, and/or international levels.

LO7 Area US1-US2-US3: Courses in American Institutions (US History, US Constitution, and California Government) should expose students to alternative interpretations of the historical events and political processes that have shaped the social, economic, and political systems in which we live.

Required Texts and Readings

See lecture syllabus

HUM 2A Reader: <http://www.sjsu.edu/faculty/wooda/2B-HUM/readings.html>

In all cases, you are expected to complete the reading prior to class and to bring print or electronic versions of material to augment our daily discussions with pertinent quotations.

Other equipment requirements

You will need a Scantron Form (882-E) for the California Institutions and Politics Examination.

You are strongly encouraged to use a cloud-based backup system such as Dropbox to limit the risk of document-loss.

Classroom Protocol

Student Conduct: It is your responsibility to know what constitutes improper behavior at San José State University. This information can be found in the SJSU university catalog and on this website: <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/Students/>. Sanctions for improper behavior can include removal from the class.

Attendance: In this class, we will frequently discuss issues and concepts that cannot be found in the assigned readings. Therefore, your participation is required. If you miss class, it is your responsibility to get class notes or other necessary information from a colleague.

Make-ups: Assignments are due at the beginning of the class period noted on the syllabus. Unexcused late assignments may be made up before finals week. However, I deduct 10 percent per 24-hour period after the assignment is due.

Tardiness: Be seated when class begins. I reserve the right to mandate a personal behavioral contract if you are excessively tardy.

Extra Credit: I do not offer extra credit. Given the many resources I make available in this class, every student has an opportunity to earn 500 points. Moreover, grading extra assignments for students who request "extra credit" is unfair to other students who work within the 500-point limit.

Mobile devices: Cell phones, computers, and other tools are permitted in my classroom if they are used responsibly. Read my full policy: <http://www.sjsu.edu/faculty/wooda/mobile-device-policy.html>

Intellectual property: Course material that I have developed for this class remains my intellectual property and cannot be shared publicly without my approval. You may not publicly share or upload my materials (such as exam questions or lecture notes) without my consent.

FAQ: Read the Frequently Asked Questions page at: <http://www.sjsu.edu/faculty/wooda/faq.html>

Dropping and Adding: You are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops and academic renewal. I recommend that you review SJSU Student Information resources at: <http://info.sjsu.edu/>

University Policies and Resources

Academic integrity

You must be familiar with the University's Academic Integrity Policy available at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/integrity.html>. "Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University's integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical development."

I will not tolerate instances of academic dishonesty. Cheating on quizzes or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. "If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors."

Campus Policy in Compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center [previously called the Disability Resource Center] to establish a record of their disability.

Student Technology Resources

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center at <http://www.sjsu.edu/at/asc/> located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and in the Associated Students Lab on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library. A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include DV and HD digital camcorders; digital still cameras; video, slide and overhead projectors; DVD, CD, and audiotape players; sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.

SJSU Writing Center

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Clark Hall, Suite 126. All Writing Specialists have gone through a rigorous hiring process, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. In addition to one-on-one tutoring services, the Writing Center also offers workshops every semester on a variety of writing topics. To make an appointment or to refer to the numerous online resources offered through the Writing Center, visit the Writing Center website at <http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter>.

Library Liaison

The Humanities Librarian is Peggy Cabrera. Feel free to contact her and make an appointment for advice and assistance. Her contact information is online: <http://libguides.sjsu.edu/humanities>

Assignments (completion of each is mediatory to pass the course)

Critical Thinking Essay (LO2, LO3, and LO5)

Select and analyze one brief excerpt from one of our Marx readings. In one to two pages (typed, double-spaced, standard margins, Times New Roman, 12 point font – the same for all assignments in this class), answer the following question: To what degree is this statement persuasive (and why)? Support your well-reasoned analysis with at least two arguments – and ensure that at least one of your proofs specifically reflect on Marx’s broader cultural context. Additional instruction:

- Download and attach gradesheet to final draft: <http://www.sjsu.edu/faculty/wooda/gradesheet.pdf>

Demonstration Speech Presentation (LO1 and LO3)

Present a 5-7 minute in-class extemporaneous speech in which you integrate a visual aid (poster, Prezi, brief video) to explain a concept that is directly related to one of our semester readings. To illustrate, you might produce a Prezi presentation to analyze the symbols and imagery found in a piece of surrealist art. In your speech, you will include oral citations from at least two separate course readings (from this semester only). This speech will demonstrate mastery of public speaking fundamentals, including an introduction that inspires audience interest, a specific thesis statement and forecast of three body points, transitions that provide a logical connection between those points, a specific review of your points, and a thought-provoking conclusion. Be prepared for questions. Additional instruction:

- On your speech day, you will submit a full-sentence alphanumerically ordered outline (worth 10% of speech grade) that follows rule-of-division, rule-of-subordination, and rule-of-parallelism.

Persuasive Letter (LO1, LO2, LO3, and LO4)

Produce an original and compelling refutation of an idea raised by one of the primary authors on this semester’s reading list in the form of a personal letter. In four to five pages, including an introduction and conclusion paragraph, construct a series of well-developed claims, each advancing from its predecessor, designed to convince the implied reader (your chosen author) that s/he should reconsider an important point about which s/he has written. Keep in mind that tone is especially important in this assignment. Your prose should indicate some degree of understanding and appreciation for the author’s point of view.

You are not trying to attack your interlocutor; you seek to persuade your author. To the degree possible, work from within her/his framework, even as you propose potentially radical transformation. Remember also that your credibility depends on more than clever argumentation. Deploy your chosen author's own words and directly cite her/his contemporaries and/or persons that s/he respects to build identification and bolster your claims – citing secondary research is generally not helpful in this assignment. Your goal is to express the depth to which you have lived in the historical, cultural, intellectual, and personal perspective of a person whose ideas demand careful consideration. Additional instructions:

- Download and attach gradesheet to final draft: <http://www.sjsu.edu/faculty/wooda/gradesheet.pdf>

Experiencing Art Essay (LO2, LO3, and LO4)

Analyze a painting, piece of sculpture, or performance that you encounter in person. In one to two pages, develop an essay whose body points accomplish the following goals in turn: (1) Describe the artwork in terms of content, aesthetics, and experience, and (2) Use that artwork as a lens to affirm or critique an idea found in one of our course readings. Support your well-reasoned analysis with at least two quotations from that reading. Additional instructions:

- Download and attach gradesheet to final draft: <http://www.sjsu.edu/faculty/wooda/gradesheet.pdf>
- Provide a ticket stub, a photograph, or some other souvenir from your artwork encounter.

Participation Self Assessment (LO1, LO2, LO3, LO4, LO5, LO6, and LO7)

Participation means that you can connect seemingly disparate ideas, integrate meaningful references to course readings, and contribute to classroom activities in a productive manner. Near the end of the semester, you will submit a half-page assessment of your participation, along with a proposed numeric score (out of 50) for this classroom component. As required, and in consultation with you, I may opt to revise that score.

Course Examinations (LO1, LO2, LO3, LO4, LO5, LO6, and LO7)

Each exam invites you to synthesize the knowledge gained throughout the course, typically in the form of short- and long-form responses to questions posed by the faculty team.

California Institutions and Politics Examination (LO7)

This required exam fulfills a history component of your General Education learning. You are allowed to take the CA government exam two times if necessary. Failure to fulfill this requirement means that you will be required to take a suitable course to meet the GE requirement.
