Rank: Assistant Professor, tenure-track position in the School of Nursing.

Qualifications:

A baccalaureate or higher degree in nursing and current physical and psychosocial assessment skills required. Possession of, or eligibility for, RN licensure in California is required. Master's degree which includes coursework in nursing, education or administration with Care of Childrearing Families (Pediatrics) focus. A doctorate is required for appointment. A minimum of 1 year recent (within 5 years) experience in Care of Childrearing Families (Pediatrics) providing direct patient care preferred. Clinical teaching applies toward direct patient care. One year of teaching experience in a registered nurse education program is required. National certification in this specialty is highly desirable. Consideration will be given to candidates with expertise in online teaching, health care policy and economics, community-based health care and/or home health nursing, expertise in informatics and/or information technology, and advanced practice as a nurse practitioner and/or clinical nurse specialist. Also required: Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:

Applicants must be prepared to care for clients in a variety of settings. The integrated baccalaureate program emphasizes the use of the nursing process to provide care to clients of all ages, at all points along, the health-illness continuum and in a variety of health care settings. Primary responsibilities will be to teach undergraduate and graduate (Master's and DNP) courses (normally 12 weighted teaching units/semester). Responsibilities will include a combination of clinical and classroom (including online) teaching and supervising Master's and DNP Projects.. Further responsibilities include a commitment to teaching and participation in evidence-based practice and advanced nursing research; ongoing clinical practice; student advising; service on school, college, and university committees; and general curricula update and development. Teaching effectiveness, service to students and university, and scholarly/professional achievement are required for retention, tenure, and promotion. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 20, 2012

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedures: For full consideration, send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, official transcripts, at least three current letters of recommendation with contact information, and a statement of teaching interests/philosophy and research plans by November 14, 2011.
