Position: Lecturer

Rank: Part-time, temporary

Salary: Commensurate with rank and experience. Salary information is available at: http://www.sjsu.edu/facultyaffairs/

Minimum Qualifications:
Ph.D. in art history or related area and teaching experience at the university level is required. Strong writing skills and an ability to direct and assess student writing is an asset. As well, candidates ought to demonstrate scholarly engagement in their area of interest as evidenced by a record of presentation and publication. Candidates should have an awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching, and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:
The successful candidate will teach undergraduate courses, particularly in Design History, Latin American Art History, and Asian Art History. In addition to survey courses, part time faculty may also teach upper-division courses within the context of the B.A. /M.A. Art History and Visual Culture program and the department as a whole. The successful candidate will teach within a dynamic department that encourages cross-disciplinary practice between art history, art practice and art education. Thus, we seek Candidates with an understanding of and engagement with recent debates in art history and visual culture. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedures:
SJSU accepts applications on an ongoing basis for our pool of temporary lecturers. For full consideration send: 1) a letter of application, 2) a curriculum vitae, 3) a statement of teaching philosophy, 4) contact information for three references, 4) example syllabi, and 5) sample publications to:
