Announcement of Position Availability (subject to budgetary approval)
San José State University
Department of English and Comparative Literature
Rank: Part-time temporary

The Department of English and Comparative Literature at San José State University seeks candidates to teach courses in Multi-ethnic Literatures of the United States and/or classes in the Literatures of the Americas beginning fall 2017.

Required Qualifications:
- PhD or ABD in English, Comparative Literature, or Ethnic Studies (with expertise in literature).
- Minimum of three (3) years teaching college-level courses to a multicultural / multilingual student population.
- Strong commitment to and evidence of excellence in teaching.

Preferred Qualifications:
- Record of publications and/or conference presentations in the field.

Responsibilities:
- Teach courses that cater to mostly junior and senior English majors and that meet General Education requirements on issues of cultural diversity and structural inequalities in the United States.
- Support the writing, reading, and research development needs of a diverse student population by providing both guidance and significant feedback on student assignments.
- Provide data for assessment of courses that measure specific General Education Student Learning Objectives.
- Participate in departmental faculty meetings.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience
Starting Date: August 2017
Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.
Application Procedures: Applications should be sent electronically to english@sjsu.edu with the subject line “Ethnic Lit/Americas Application.” For full consideration, please send the following:
- A letter of application that addresses qualifications and teaching philosophy
- Curriculum vitae
- Student evaluations from a minimum of three (3) courses, ideally from the past three (3) years
- Three (3) current letters of recommendation

Applications should be sent as one pdf file; letters of recommendation may be sent under a separate cover. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.
San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment. A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position. The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police.)