San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Department of Hospitality Management
College of Applied Sciences and Arts
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Specialization: Event Management
Job Opening ID (JOID): 23334
Rank: Assistant Professor, Tenure-track

Qualifications:
- An earned doctoral degree from an accredited university, in hospitality, tourism, or related field by the start of appointment.
- Evidence of potential for excellence in research, excellence in teaching at the university level, and in ability to contribute to shared governance.
- Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Knowledge of planning, operations and management of corporate events.
- Knowledge of software, tools, and technologies related to meeting and event management.
- Ability to work collaboratively and respectfully with a diverse population of staff, faculty, and students as a team member.

Responsibilities:
Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.
- Teach undergraduate courses in the respective focus area of this position at all levels (foundation through advanced) such as: event management, meeting conventions and event industries, tradeshow and exposition management, and others in development.
- Serve as the event management curriculum coordinator. Responsible for introducing software, tools and technologies used in planning and managing events.
- Lead and conduct research in event planning, management, and marketing.
- Lead and supervise service activities on behalf of the department.
- Share the responsibilities of student advising, curriculum development, supervising internships, etc.
- Serve on department, college, and university level committees.

Salary Range:
Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 22, 2016

Eligibility:
Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedure:
For full consideration, upload a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy, research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by November 1, 2015 to apply.interfolio.com/30174
Please direct questions to:

Tsu-Hong Yen, Chair, Search Committee,
Department of Hospitality Management
San José State University
e-mail: tsu-hong.yen@sjsu.edu

Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.

The Department of Hospitality Management at San José State University is a fast-growing, free-standing department with over 350 majors, and a growing number of faculty and lecturers. Located in metropolitan San José, the capital of Silicon Valley, the Department currently offers a B.S. degree in Hospitality, Tourism, and Event Management (HTEM), with academic emphases in lodging, food service, event management, and entrepreneurship.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police.)