ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Specialization: Motor Development
Job Opening ID (JOID): 23426
Rank: Assistant/Associate Professor, Tenure-track

Qualifications:
Earned Doctorate in Kinesiology, Exercise Science, Physical Education, Sport Science, or a related field with specialization in Motor Development by the time of appointment;

Demonstrated ability to teach courses in Motor Development at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and to teach general education courses, and/or physical activity classes as needed;

Evidence of scholarly promise, professional engagement, and ability to seek external funding where appropriate;

Ability to work collegially;

Ability and desire to serve on thesis committees, supervise theses/projects, and advise undergraduate and graduate students;

University teaching experience, active participation in pertinent professional organizations, and experience with online teaching and learning are preferred.

Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:
Teach undergraduate and graduate courses in the area of Motor Development and in other program areas such as adapted physical activity/education, research methods, pedagogy, general education and physical activity as needed. Other teaching assignments may be made based on the appointee's breadth/depth of knowledge and experience.

Provide leadership in coordinating and integrating expertise with other curricular areas and activities, serving as a liaison between the university and relevant community organizations in establishing internships and promoting movement/exercise programs across the lifespan.

Apply knowledge and skills using an interdisciplinary approach to Kinesiology, especially with regard to disability or obesity and physical activity;

Conduct scholarly research, develop grants, present professional papers, and publish in peer-reviewed journals;

Serve on thesis/project committees, and advise students at the undergraduate and graduate levels;

Serve on department, college, and university committees as appropriate;

Integrate and build bridges across the sub-disciplines within the Kinesiology Department and collaborate with other departments across the university;
Candidate must address the needs of a diverse student population—e.g., related to age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language, and academic preparation—through course materials, teaching strategies, and advisement.

Salary Range:
Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date:
August 22, 2016

Eligibility:
Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedure: For full consideration, upload a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy, statement of research, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by October 1, 2015 at apply.interfolio.com/31004

Please direct any questions to:
Dr. Matthew Masucci
Chair Department of Kinesiology
Matthew.masucci@sjsu.edu

Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or the continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police.)