San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Film & Theatre
Specialization: Musical Theatre
Job Opening ID (JOID): 24260
Rank: Assistant Professor (Tenure-track)

Qualifications:
The Dept. of Film and Theatre seeks qualified candidates for a full-time, tenure-track position in Musical Theatre, with an emphasis on performance techniques in acting, singing, dance and directing. The ideal candidate will possess critical and theatre historical knowledge combined with contemporary practice in musical theatre and proven ability to direct stage musicals. The candidate will develop and teach courses that serve a diverse body of theatre students with emphasis on practical training for musical theatre performance; emerging trends in musical theatre; and the history and theories of the genre. The candidate will serve to support multidisciplinary theatre and film initiatives within the department and across the university. Applicants should have an awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching, and other comparable experience.

Required:
- An MFA or PhD in Musical Theatre, Theatre, or related field.
- A portfolio of creative work demonstrating artistic achievement in musical theatre.
- Professional experience and expertise in directing musical theatre.
- Emphasis on performance techniques in acting, singing, and or/dance.
- University teaching experience.
- Demonstrated artistic achievement as evidenced by a record of artistic production.

Preferred:
- A minimum of two years teaching experience at the university level.
- Demonstrated strong writing and oral communication skills.

Responsibilities:
- Design and teach introductory and advanced level courses in musical theatre performance, including movement technique, vocal technique, acting technique and directing technique, as well as classes in musical theatre history and theory; stage acting; and theatre appreciation.
- Advise students and participate in student recruitment.
- Perform committee and other service at the department, college and university levels.
- Participate in curriculum development and teaching of other courses to meet the needs of the program and its students.
- Develop and sustain an ongoing record of creative activities (and/or research), and other professional engagement.
- Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range:
Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 17, 2018

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.
Application Procedure:
For full consideration, send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy, research or creative production plans, and three confidential letters of recommendation with contact information by November 27, 2017 to apply.interfolio.com/44998.

Questions should be directed to Chair Kimb Massey, (408) 924-4571; Kimb.Massey@sjsu.edu.

Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose.
