San José State University
San José, California

ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Specialization: Strategic Management
Job Opening ID (JOID): 23738
Rank: Assistant or Associate Professor (Tenure-track)

Qualifications:
• Possess a doctorate in Management/Strategy from an accredited university by start of appointment.
• Be scholarly active (SA) status under AACSB standards.
• For advanced rank, must demonstrate a record of research productivity commensurate with rank, and be willing to assume a leadership role in the field.
• A record of professional achievements and research leading to publications and scholarly papers.
• An ability to work in a collegial atmosphere as part of a team and excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
• An interest in and commitment to interacting effectively with the Silicon Valley business community.
• Pragmatic teaching applications and approaches ideally informed and enhanced by industry experience.
• Work experience in industry and/or having a Masters in Business Administration is preferred.
• Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities: Excellence in teaching, research, and service will be expected. The successful candidate will develop a robust research and teaching program engaging primarily undergraduate but also graduate students. The successful candidate will address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language, ability, work experience, and academic preparation – through course materials and teaching strategies.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available.
